Copenhagen, August 27.

THE King is expected here To-night from Friedensbourg, and To-morrow his Majesty sets out for Bregentwedt, the Seat of Count Molck, Great Marshal of the Court, in order to spend a few Days. We have received Advice, that our Squadron of Men of War, which were some Time since driven into the Port of Fleckeroe in Norway, by Strefs of Weather, is still detained there by contrary Winds. Yesterday the Three Princesses, a Ship belonging to our Asiatick Company, arrived here from Bengal, with a very rich Cargo.

Vienna, Aug. 28. Last Monday the Regiment of Foot of Arenberg arrived here, and the next Morning was reviewed by the Archduke Joseph, accompanied by Count Bathiani, and other Officers of Rank. They made a very handsomè Appearance; and, when the Review was over, continued their March for the Camp near Colin in Bohemia.

Hambourg, Sept. 2. They write from Dantzick, that notwithstanding the Magazines in that City are well supplied, and there is a great Prospect of a plentiful Harvest this Year in Prussia, there is no Talk of taking off the Prohibition of Exporting Corn out of that Country.

Dresden, Sept. 5. All the Saxon Army is assembled in the Camp near Pirna, where they have thrown up an Intrenchment, and are provided with a great Number of Cannon, and all Sorts of Military Stores. On Friday last his Polish Majesty, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, went to the Camp. The Burgesses of this City are all under Arms.

Regen, Sept. 7. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and the whole Court, are expected here To-morrow from Dieren.

Brussels Sept. 10. On Wednesday last General Luchesi, and the Duke of Arenberg, received Orders from Vienna, to repair with all possible Expedition to the Army in Bohemia, under the Command of Field Marshal Browne. They both purpose to set out in a few Days.

Kensington, September 13.

This Day an humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled; as also a Second Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and others the Principal Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, were presented to His Majesty by Robert Nugent, Esq;

Whitehall, September 14.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Charles Jeffereys, Esq; to be Colcnel of the 14th Regiment of Foot, late under the Command of Thomas Fowke, Esq;

Admiralty-Office, August 31, 1756.

Whereas it has been represented, that several Private Men belonging to His Majesty's Marine Forces have deserted, or absented themselves without Leave, from their respective Companies; This is, by Order of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, to give Notice to such Men, that if they return to their Duty, at either of the Marine Head Quarters, of Chatham, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, by the last Day of next Month, they will not be punished for their abovesaid-Desertion, or Absence.
