From Tuesday October 5, to Saturday October 9, 1756.

By the Lords Justices General, and General
Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

KILDARE.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Twelfth Day of October next, be further prorogued to the Twenty-first Day of April next; we do therefore publish and declare, That the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to the Twenty-first Day of April next; whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 30th Day of September, 1756.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

Lisbon, September 11. On the 31st past, early in the Morning, his most Faithful Majesty's Pleasure was signified to M. de Mondonça, Secretary of State for the Department of the Marine, that three Hours Time were only allowed him to prepare for his Banishment to any Part of the Country he should chuse, at the Distance of Forty Leagues from Court. M. de Mondonça having delivered up the Keys of his Publick Office, proceeded soon after in his Coach, to a Friend's House near Oporto, attended by his Confessor and two Servants, under the Guard of Four Dragoons. A few Hours after the Banishment of M. de Mondonça, a Royal Proclamation was posted up in most of the Publick Parts of this City, promising a Reward of Twenty Thousand Crowns to any one, who should discover the Authors of a Design to take away the Life of some of the Portuguese Ministers. The late Administrator of the Bishoprick of Oporto has been ordered to lay down his Employment, and remove to some distant Part of the Country, by way of Punishment, for having, without Orders from Court, taken up young Mr. Pawson, an English Gentleman, on a Religious Account, and for not having immediately obeyed the Royal Order sent him for the Release of that Gentleman, who has since been set at Liberty by the special Direction of his most Faithful Majesty.

Genoa, Sept. 11. Yesterday we had one of the most terrible Storms of Wind, Rain, Thunder, and Lightning, that perhaps has happened in this Country in the Memory of Man. Great Damage has been sustained on this Occasion by the Inhabitants all round us, and particularly at Bisagno and Polsevera, where several Persons lost their Lives.

Dresden, Sept. 27. Within these few Days past several Prussian Regiments have marched through this City on their Way to join the main Body of their Army in Bohemia. The Saxon Troops are so effectually blocked up by those of his Prussian Majesty, that scarce any Thing can be conveyed to their Camp without falling into the Hands of the Prussian Hussars. The Count de Malachowski, Great Chancellor of Poland, who arrived here some Days ago from that Kingdom, has obtained the King of Prussia's Leave to wait on his Polish Majesty at the Camp near Pirna.

Admiralty-Office, October 6, 1756.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That in the Night between the 20th and 21st of September last, a Brigantine of about 60 Tons Burthen, without any Persons on Board, was driven on Shore near Pakefield in Suffolk, where she the then lay; that by some old Papers found on Board her, she is believed to be the Delaval of Berwick, Ralph Lewen, Master, and that the Proprietors may be informed of further Particulars by applying to Mr. Robert Hayward, jun. at Loweltoff.

J. Milnes, Deputy Secretary.

General Post-Office, October 2, 1756.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail, dispatched from this Office upon Tuesday the 28th of September, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, was, on Thursday last, the 30th of the same Month, about half an Hour past Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, in a Lane between Coal Ashon and Little Norton, in the County of Derby, by Two Men on Foot, who took from him and carried away the Mail, containing the Bag of Letters from London to Sheffield, and likewise the Bag containing the Bye and Cross-Road Letters, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, as also four Shillings and Sixpence from the said Post-Boy.

The two Persons who committed this Robbery are described as middle sized Men, and wearing, the one of them a blue Coat and white Waistcoat, and the other a light-coloured Frock; one of them was pitted with the Small-Pox, and the other had a Mark upon one Hand, as if the same had been cut.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the two Persons who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highway men; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby both, or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvoeke, Secretary.

Navy Office, October 1, 1756.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Bills register'd on the Course of the Navy in the Month of April 1756, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empower'd to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Viſtualling Office, October 6, 1756.

The Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 17th of November next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are inclinable to undertake the Viſtualling such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as shall arrive at Hull, and be in Want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Viſtualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Hull.

College of Physicians, London, October 5, 1756.

We the Censors of the College, being informed that very large Quantities of a Bark imported from North America has been lately sold by publick Sale at Garraway's Coffee House as Jesuits Bark, have procur'd Samples of it, and, calling to us the Master and Wardens of the Apothecaries Company, have examined it, and find, that though it has the Appearance, it has not the Taste or Qualities of the true Jesuits or Peruvian Bark: We the Censors therefore, that we may not be wanting in an Affair of such Consequence to the Health and Lives of His Majesty's Subjects, think it our Duty to give this publick Notice to all Apothecaries, and other publick Dispencers of Medicines, desiring them not to purchase any Peruvian Bark without tasting and carefully examining it.

Ambrose Dawson.
John Thomas Butt.
Antony Askew.
Nicolas Munckley.

The following Gentlemen are (by His Majesty's Patent, dated at Westminster the 14th of August 1756,) appointed Commissioners for the Sale of Prizes taken before the Declaration of War, viz.

Bartholomew Burton.	Robert Wilson.
George Aufrere.	Henry Saxby.
Robert Featherstonehaugh.	Samuel Touchet.
George Wombwell.	Albert Nesbitt.
John Barker.	John Cleveland, jun.
Nicholas Linwood.	John Eames.
Timothy Brett.	John Gwilt.

Dr. ANDERSON'S, or,
The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mulletts Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. S. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Knight, in Jamaica, to his Father in Birchin Lane, London.

I Have had that Fever which the People are very subject to when they first come to this Place, but having great Faith in Dr. James's Powder, I was determined to take them, and it removed my Fever in less than 48 Hours, to the great Surprise of all those who were about me. I have persuaded many to try them in that Disorder since, and with great Success; for they have done most surprizing Cures, and raised People even after they have been given over by the Physicians.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.
