

retire with Loss, and to with-draw the Bridge : In these two little Affairs we had one Croat killed, and four wounded. The same Day the Marshal sent a large Detachment to Leitmaritz to secure the Country on the other Side of the Elbe, from the Incursions of the Enemy's Parties. Our Hussars and Croats daily bring in Prisoners.

General Haddick arrived here some Days ago with his Regiment; also five Battalions of Croats have joined us.

As we have received Advice that the Prussian Army is in Motion, we hold ourselves in Readiness to march; so probably we are on the Point of coming to an Action. Several Prussian Deserters arrive in our Camp; we give every one a certain Sum of Money; we buy their Arms and Horses, and give them Passports to go where they please.

On the 30th arrived here General Count Luchesi. He shines as much by his uncommon Valour, as by his other Qualities in the Art of War, so his Arrival caused a universal Joy in all the Army.

Brussels, Oct. 15. On Saturday last, the Letters from Holland brought us an Account of a Victory gained on the 1st Instant at Lowoschutz, by the King of Prussia, over the Austrians, commanded by Marshal Brown; but the next Evening a Courier arrived here from Vienna, with the following Particulars of that Action.

Marshal Brown's Relation to their Imperial Majesties, of the Battle of the 1st of October.

The 30th of September, the King of Prussia marched in the Night, at the Head of 40000 men, towards the Imperial Army.

Marshal Brown being informed of it, caused the Vineyard and Avenues to be occupied by more than 1000 Croats on each Side, and from thence began to fire about 2 o'Clock in the Morning.

At Break of Day the Prussian Army was seen through the narrow Passes of Welmina, where they formed themselves on the Hills to the Right, on the Left, and in the Bottom of Lowoschutz, and the Battle began at 7 o'Clock, when the Fog cleared up.

The Fire on both Sides was very brisk, and the Prussian Cannonade such, that every one agreed they had never heard any thing like it; notwithstanding which, the Imperial Troops performed Prodiges of Valour, by sustaining the Fire of the Artillery with the greatest Firmness, and by repulsing the Enemy's Attacks several times.

The Prussians finding their Efforts vain, began to throw red hot Balls into the Village of Lowoschutz, and set fire to it; our Infantry thus finding themselves between the Fire of the Village and the Enemy's Attack, were obliged to quit the Eminence on the Right of the Village, to form themselves in the Plain; after which the Fire slackened, and ceased entirely at 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon.

His Prussian Majesty retired behind the Field of Battle, upon which Marshal Brown remained the whole Night; but finding the next Day that they were in Want of Water, his Excellency returned to his Camp at Budin on the 2d. and the Prussians had not yet taken Possession of the Village of Lowoschutz.

The Imperial Cavalry performed Wonders, driving back that of the Enemy twice, so that they did not dare appear again, and were obliged to retire behind their Infantry.

The Number of the Killed and Wounded on the Part of the Imperialists, do not amount to 2000 Men; of the Officers of Distinction, General Radicati and Colonel Szentilani are killed, General Prince Lobkowitz is wounded and Prisoner, General Rantzow, Col. Caroli, Adjutant General Hager, and the Marshal's Son, wounded; Gourville and Lassi are also wounded.

The Enemy's Loss must be much more considerable; we are assured that three of their Generals are killed; we have made some hundreds Prisoners, among whom are a great many officers.

Victualling-Office, October 11, 1756.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 8th of December next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are inclinable to undertake the Victualling such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as shall arrive at Leith, Leith Road, and Firth of Edinburgh, and be in want of Provisions. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Leith.
