By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For putting the Laws in Execution against Forestalling, Regrating, and Engrossing of Corn.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS several good Statutes have been made against Forestallers, Regraters, and Engrossers, who are thereby declared open Oppressors of the Poor, and Enemies of their Country: And by an Act made in the Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, the Buying, Bargaining, or Contracting for any Corn coming by Land, or by Water to any Market, or Fair, or to any City, Port, Haven, Creek, or Road, of this Realm, or Wales, from any Parts beyond the Sea, to be sold, before the same shall be brought into the Markets, Fairs, Cities, Ports, Havens, Creeks, or Roads, to be sold; and the making any Motion by Word, Letter, Message, or otherwise, to any Person, for the Inhauncing of the Price, or dear Selling of the same; and the dissuading any Person from bringing his or her Corn to any of the said Markets, Fairs, Cities, Ports, Havens, Creeks, or Roads, to be sold, are prohibited, and adjudged Forestalling. And whereas by the same Act it is declared, That the obtaining, or getting into any Man's Possession, any Corn in any Fair or Market, and selling the same in any Fair or Market held in the same Place, or within four Miles thereof, shall be adjudged Regrating. And whereas by the same Act it is likewise declared, That it shall be adjudged an unlawful Engrossing to Buy or Contract for any Corn, to sell the same again, otherwise than is therein particularly allowed of (that is to say) Buying of Barley, Bigg, or Oats (not by Forestalling) to be converted into Malt or Oatmeal in the House of the Buyer, which shall be so converted indeed; or the taking of any Corn reserved without Fraud, upon any Lease for Term of any Life or Years; or the Buying of any Corn (not by Forestalling) by any Badger, Lader, Kidder, or Carrier, who is to be licensed so to do; and shall sell the same in open Fair or Market, or to some Victualler, or other Person, for the Provision of his or their Houses, within one Month after the same shall be so first bought; or providing, without Forestalling, the usual Quantity of Corn, for any City, Borough, or Town Corporate; or for Provision, or Victualling any Ship, Castle, or Fort, within the Dominions of the Crown: All which Sorts of Dealing in Corn are not Offences against the said Statute. Nor the Buying of Corn (except by Forestalling) by any Person licensed so to do, to be transported by Water from any Port or Place in England or Wales, unto any other Port or Place within our Dominions, so that the same be, without Fraud, shipped within Forty Days after the same shall be bought, and carried with such Expedition, as the Wind and Weather will permit, to the Port the Cocquet of the same shall declare, and there to disbarque and sell the same, and bring a Certificate thereof from a Justice of the Peace of the County, or Mayor or Bailiff of the Town, and of the Customer of the Port, of the Place and Day where the Corn was unladed and sold, to the Customer and Comptroller of the Port where the same was shipped; the Punishments of which said Offences are enacted to be Imprisonment for two Months, without Bail or Mainprize, for the First Offence, besides Forfeiture of the Corn so bought or had: For the Second Offence, Imprisonment for the Space of Half a Year, without Bail or Mainprize, and Loss of Double the Value of the Corn so bought or had, as aforesaid: And for the Third Offence, setting on the Pillory in the Place where the Offender shall dwell, and Forfeiture of all his Goods and Chattels, and Imprisonment during our Pleasure; the one Moiety of all which Forfeitures is given to the Prosecutor, in case he will sue for the same; but the whole Forfeiture will belong to us, where the Conviction shall be at our Suit only. And it was thereby likewise enacted, That if any Person having sufficient Corn for Provision of his

his House, and sowing of his Ground for one Year, shall buy any Corn in any Fair or Market, for the Change of his Seed, and shall not bring to the same Fair or Market, the same Day, so much Corn as shall be bought for his Seed, and sell the same, if he can, at the Price the same shall then go at, in the said Fair or Market, every such Person shall forfeit the Double Value of the Corn so bought. And whereas by an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, it was enacted, That no Badger, Lader, Kidder, Carrier, Buyer or Transporter of Corn, shall be licensed but in the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County where such Person shall so dwell, and hath dwelt for the Space of three Years before the Date of his Licence, and who is then an Householder, not a Servant or Retainer to any Person, and who, at the Time of granting such Licence, is, or hath been, a married Man, not under the Age of Thirty Years; which Licences are to continue but for a Year, and must be signed and sealed by three of the Justices then present, whereof one to be of the Quorum, on Pain of forfeiting Five Pounds by every Person taking any Licence not pursuant to the said Act; and all such Licences are, by the said Act, declared to be null and void: And the said Justices are, by the said Act, impowered to take Bond and Surety by Recognizance of the Person licensed, that he shall not Forestall or Engross, or otherwise practice or do any Act or Thing contrary to the said Statute of Edward the Sixth. And it is likewise further provided by the said Act, That no Person shall buy any Corn or Grain out of open Fair or Market, to sell again, unless such Person shall be thereunto licensed by special Order and express Words, upon Pain of forfeiting the like Sum of Five Pounds: All which several Offences, the Justices of the Peace, at the Quarter Sessions for the County where such Offences shall be committed, have Power to hear and determine. And whereas the Prices of Corn are already very much encreased, and the same is likely to grow much dearer, to the great Oppression of the Poor, partly because the said Acts are not duly put in Execution, We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation; And We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all and every Our Judges, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and all other Magistrates, Officers, and Ministers, whatsoever and wheresoever, within England, Wales, and Our Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, within their respective Places and Jurisdictions, do cause the said Acts, and all other Acts relating to the same Matters, to be, in all and every the Parts and Branches thereof, put in speedy and effectual Execution; and that they do take Care, that no Licence be granted to any Badger, Lader, Kidder, Carrier, Buyer or Transporter of Corn or Grain, but to such Person as are or shall be qualified for the same, according to the Directions of the Acts of Parliament relating thereunto; and under such Sureties as those Acts do require; and that they do take Care, that all Offenders against the said Acts be effectually prosecuted according to the Purport of the said Acts. And We do hereby Require and Charge all Our Officers, Ministers, and loving Subjects whatsoever, to be aiding and assisting in the due Execution of this Our Royal Proclamation, on Pain of our high Displeasure, and of such Pains and Punishments as may by Law be inflicted upon the Contemners of Our Royal Authority.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty Sixth Day of November 1756, in the Thirtieth Year of Our Reign.

of November, 1756.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

W H E R E A S by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, entituled, An Act for the speedy and effectual Recruiting of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, it is provided, amongst other Things, That at such Time as His Majesty shall be satisfied by the Returns of the Commissioners appointed to carry the said Act into Execution, or otherwise, that a sufficient Number of Recruits in the Whole, shall have been raised for His present Service, He might be graciously pleased to suspend or stop the further Execution of the said Act, by Proclamation, or Order in Council, or other Publick Notice in the London Gazette. — And whereas in Pursuance of the Power so reserved to His Majesty, Publick Notice was given in the London Gazette of the 17th Day of April last, as likewise in the three following Gazettes, by His Majesty's Secretary at War, That His Majesty was graciously pleased to suspend and stop the further Execution of the said Act, from and after the first Day of May then next, till further Notice—And whereas His Majesty hath judged it necessary for His Service, to cause several new Levies to be made, as well for the Land Forces as the Marines, and that it is therefore become necessary to cause the said Suspension to be taken off; — His Majesty is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to Declare His Royal Will and Pleasure, that the aforementioned Suspension and Stoppage of the Execution of the said Act, be and lawfully be taken off, and that the said Act be and lawfully be put in Execution, from and after the first Day of May then next, till further Notice.

authorized to carry the said Act into Execution in those Counties where Precepts have been issued by the High Sheriff or his Deputy, pursuant to Notice sent by His Majesty's Secretary at War for that Purpose, that they do forthwith re-assemble themselves, and proceed with their utmost Diligence in carrying the said Act into Execution, pursuant to the Directions therein contained.—And with respect to those Counties to which His Majesty's Secretary at War hath not hitherto sent such Notice, the High Sheriffs of such Counties or their Deputies shall, (notwithstanding the aforementioned Suspension) upon receiving Notice from the Secretary at War, at any Time hereafter, during the Continuance of the said Act, issue their Precepts in the Manner required by the said Act, in order to its being carried likewise into Execution in those respective Counties.

From the Camp of Zudin, Nov. 10.

Upon Advice that the Enemy were entred into Winter Quarters, his Excellency Marshal Brown sent Capt. Raizenstein to General Haddik, who is between Toplitz and Peterswalde, with a Plan of a Line to be drawn upon the Frontiers of Saxony; and General Guasco, an Officer of Merit, and an excellent Engineer, was entrusted with the Execution of it.

The Marshal has given the Command of all the Posts on this Side of the Elbe to General Haddik, and of those of the other Side to General Maeguire. Besides all the Croats and Hussars, his Excellency has appointed a sufficient Number of Battalions, Companies of Grenadiers, German Horse, with Artillery proportionable, to cover the Frontiers, and to defend the Country from the Insults of the Enemy's Parties.

Since his Excellency has fixed the Winter Quarters for the Army, several Regiments desile off daily towards the Quarters assigned them, and in 15 Days all the Army will be in Winter Quarters.

The Head Quarters are established at Prague. The Garrison whereof is composed of the Regiment of Louis Wolfenbuttel, a Battalion of that of Wallis, and 22 Companies of Grenadiers that came from Italy.

Marshal Brown has consented to a Negotiation with Marshal Keith, General in Chief of the Prussian Army, for the Exchange of Prisoners. And as the Town of Carlstrad has been fixed on as most convenient for both Parties, and each Party having agreed to send thither a Lieutenant Colonel, a Captain, an Auditor, and a Commissary of War, Marshal Brown has already appointed Lieutenant Colonel Thurn, and Capt. Churfield, both of the Regiment of the Archduke Ferdinand's Cuirassiers, to negotiate on the Part of the Austrians. The Regiments of Schmertzing, Kalkreute, and Gelhai, Cuirassiers; and those of Nadasty, and Kaincki, Hussars, who all came from Hungary, are gone to Moravia, where they will remain till they receive further Orders. Count Sternberg, Minister Plenipotentiary of their Imperial Majesties at the Court of Dresden, has passed by this Place, with all his Family, on his Way to Vienna.

Admiralty-Office, November 25, 1756.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That the Ship Nancy of Aberdeen, Thomas Ritchie, Master, of 100 Tons Burthen, laden with 410 Barrels of pickled Salmon, the Property of Alexander Livingston and William Bretner, of Aberdeen, Merchants, and bound to Rotterdam, on the 22d Instant, about Eight o'Clock in the Evening, got into Yarmouth Roads, when standing in with the Land, and hazy Weather, also very dark, and having missed her Stays, she ran on to the Shore or Main, and was, on the 23d, laying on the Beach or Main, and it was feared that she was billaged, and would inevitably be lost.

The Commissioners appointed for Sale of the French Prizes taken before the Declaration of War, having sent Powers to proper Persons to dispose of such Ships and Cargoes as were carried into Gibraltar, Barbadoes, the Leeward Islands, Jamaica and South Carolina, by Publick Sale, think proper to give this Notice thereof, and that they expect such Sales will commence in the Months of January, February and March next, that all Merchants inclined to become Purchasers, may have Time to give Orders to their Correspondents accordingly.

General

General Post-Office, October 2, 1756.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail, dispatched from this Office upon Tuesday the 28th of September, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, was, on Thursday last, the 30th of the same Month, about half an Hour past Six of the Clock in the Evening, attacked and robbed, in a Lane between Coal Alton and Little Norton, in the County of Derby, by Two Men on Foot, who took from him and carried away the Mail, containing the Bag of Letters from London to Sheffield, and likewise the Bag containing the Bye and Cross-Road Letters, from Chesterfield to Sheffield, as also four Shillings and Six pence from the said Post-Boy.

The two Persons who committed this Robbery are described as middle sized Men, and wearing, the one of them a blue Coat and white Waistcoat, and the other a light coloured Frock; one of them was pitted with the Small-pox, and the other had a Mark upon one Hand, as if the same had been cut.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the two Persons who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, do, or shall make Discovery, whereby both, or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such discoverer or Discoverers shall, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasiness proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

The Case of Mrs. Mary Cuppage, Midwife, in Bennet Street, Westminster.

I had long been troubled with such a Dizziness and Swimming in my Head, that I could not see as I went along the Streets, and in the latter End of June last was taken so ill that I was obliged to keep my Bed. The Disorder terminated in a violent Fever, which in eight Weeks Time so weakened me, that I was obliged to be laid on the Floor while my Bed was made, not being able to sit up in the Chair. I was blistered, and many Medicines were given me, but to no Purpose; for I grew quite insensible, and the People that were with me had no Hopes of my Recovery. At this Time a Gentleman of the Faculty ordered me Dr. James's Powder, which took off the Delirium and the Fever, and I very soon recovered. My Grand daughter, who was seized with a Fever at the same Time, which continued on her seven Weeks, was cured by the same Powder.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartic Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleet, are absolutely cured.

Sold at the Widow Adams's, Printer, at West-Chester; and at Mr. Gamble's, Distiller, at Gravesend; and at Mr. Brown's, Bookseller, in Christmas-street, Bristol.

Dice Key, November 20, 1756.

WHEREAS Damage frequently happens to Sugars, and other Goods and Merchandize imported from the Sugar Colonies put on board our Lighters to be brought from the Ship to the Keys: And whereas Disputes often arise, and Attempts are frequently made to charge us with the Loss, notwithstanding the Prices paid for the Lighterage of such Goods are very considerable, and altho' we do not esteem such Goods and Merchandize to be in our Charge or Custody:

Therefore to prevent any Disputes of the like Nature for the Future, we the Wharfingers of the Upper, Middle, and Lower Stations of the Free Keys between the Tower and London Bridge, do hereby give this publick Notice to all Merchants, Owners and Masters of Ships, and all other Persons whatsoever, that shall at any Time hereafter put, or cause to be put, any such Goods or Merchandizes on board any of our Lighters, or other Craft, that we do not esteem such Goods to be in our Charge or Custody, and that we will not stand to any Risque, or be accountable for any Loss or Damage that may happen to any such Goods or Merchandizes so put into the said Lighters; and that on these Terms only we consent that they may be put on board.
