By the KING'S Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1752, in the 25th Year of his Majesty, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Veneral Injuries, and all the lurking Relicks or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Veneral Disemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleets, are absolutely cured.

SIR Cyril Wych, Baronet, His Britannick Majesty's Envoy, late of Hamburg, as Usufructuary of an Estate called Tangstedt in the Duchy of Holstein, being some Time ago departed this Life; and the Heirs of the said Sir Cyril Wych having claimed their hereditary Succession of the said Sir Cyril Wych, deceased, with the Proviso of an Inventory, that is according to the Law Term of the German Civilians, cura hancisio Legis & Inventarii, his Imperial Highness the Grand Duke of Russia, as Duke of Sleswick Holstein, at the Request of the said Heirs of the said Sir Cyril Wych, deceased, hath ordered a publick Proclamation to be issued, the same bearing Date, Kiel in Holstein the 30th of September, 1756. By which Proclamation, all and singular, who have any Intelligence of the said deceased Sir Cyril Wych's outstanding Debts and Demands, as also those which are any Way indebted to the said Sir Cyril Wych, or those with whom any Thing belonging to the said Sir Cyril Wych is deposited or given in Pledge, are summoned, called upon and cited respectively, those that are Subjects and Inhabitants of Holstein, within the Term of six Weeks by arbitrary Penalty and double Payment, and the Foreigners within the Term of eighteen Weeks, by Penalty, as the Laws of the Country where they belong so in such Cases direct, to apply to the Duke's Secretary of the Chancery Frederick Nissen at Kiel, there to give and tender true and exact Account relating to the Premises. And in like Manner, all and singular the Creditors of the said Sir Cyril Wych, deceased, and those, who have any Demand upon him, either by Bond, Note, obligatory Writing, or for or by any other Means whatsoever, are summoned, monished and cited also to apply within the respective Terms above-mentioned; to be computed from the Day of the Date after the said Proclamation hath been published, to the Secretary of the Chancery Frederick Nissen aforesaid, there to declare what they have to demand, and to produce the Originals of those Writings, Papers, and other Vouchers, which they have for to prove their Demands, and to leave lawful attested Copies thereof with the Register, upon Pain that those, which do not appear within the Time limited and prescribed as above, they shall afterwards not be admitted, but shall be excluded from all Benefits of Laws in their Behalf, and be obliged to keep their Silence for ever.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, before Thomas Bennett, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his House in Curstons Street, London, A Mortgage for the Sum of 2000 l. and Interest, upon two Leasehold Messuages or Tenements, Yard and Dung Wharf, with the Appurtenants, situate on the East Side of Water Street, in the Parish of St. Clement Danes in the County of Middlesex; one of which, with the Dung Wharf, is lett to William Hutchins at the yearly Rent of 120 l. and the other of the said Messuages is lett to John Prince by Agreement 57 eight Years, at the yearly Rent of 26 l. both which Messuages are held by Lease from his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, for the Remainder of a Term of 61 Years commencing at Lady-day 1731, subject to a Ground-Rent of 22 l. per Annum. Further Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's House.
