Vienna, December 24.

HER Imperial Majesty is so well recovered of her late lying-in, as to admit the Ladies into her Presence; and 'tis thought she will soon be able to dispatch Business as before. Cardinal Trautson, Archbishop of this City, had a few Days ago an Apoplectick Fit, but he is now perfectly recovered.

Hague, Jan. 5. The usual Summonses are sent out for an Assembly of the States of Holland and Westfrizeland on Wednesday next. They write from Marfailles, that the Chamber of Commerce of that City has fitted out a Bark to cruize against the English; and that Orders are given, by the French King, to equip, at that Port, a Man of War, and a Chebeck, at his Expence, for the like Purpose.

War-Office, Nov. 30, 1756.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, that there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Corps in His Majesty's Service; His Majesty hoping, that such Deserters may be hereby induced to return to their Duty, and that this Instance of His Clemency will have a due Influence on their future Behaviour, is pleased to grant His most Gracious Pardon to all Deserters from His Majesty's Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves on or before the last Day of January next to the respective Corps to which they belong; or who shall within the same Time surrender themselves to any other Corps in His Majesty's Service, to the Intent they may either be sent to their proper Corps, or serve in any other, according as His Majesty may be pleased to direct; this Pardon not to extend to any Persons now in actual Custody for their Desertion, nor to such, who may at any Time before the said last Day of January next, be apprehended or challenged as Deserters, unless upon their being so apprehended or challenged, they do immediately make known the Corps from which they have deserted.

And whereas several of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other Corps, and be now serving therein, His Majesty is likewise graciously pleased to grant His Pardon to all such Offenders, (not being in actual Custody for the same) and also to declare, It is His Royal Intention, that they shall continue to serve in the Corps in which they now are, without being molested or reclaimed by the Officers of the respective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

By His Majesty's Command,
BARRINGTON.
