Rome, January 4.

N the 19th paft, the French Ambaffador received a Courier from his Court, with Difpatches relating to the Difagreements between the Clergy and Parliament of France. The fame Evening a Courier from Naples paffed by this City, with Difpatches for the Prince of St. Elizabeth, the Neapolitan Minister at Dresden. On the 20th Cardinal Archinto, the Secretary of State, received an Estafette from Venice, with Difpatches relating to the Project of Reconciliation between that Republick and the See of Rome. The Popes Frigates St. Peter and St. Paul, after failing to the Islands of Sardinia and Corfica, are cruizing on our Coafts against the Barbary Corfairs.

Madrid, Jan. 10. On the ift and 2d Inftant arrived at Cadiz the St. Andrew from Buenos Aires, the St. Mary from Cartagena, and the Jafon from the Havanna, with about One Million three hundred thoufand Dollars in Gold and Silver, thirty two thoufand raw Hides, fixty four Mafts for his Catholick Majefty's Navy, and other Effects. Lately died here, in the 51ft Year of her Age, the Dutchefs of Solferino, Daughter to the Prince of Santobuono a Sicilian Nobleman. She was one of the Ladies of the Bed-Chamber to her Catholick Majefty, who has continued for Life the Penfion annexed to that Place, to her Hufband the Duke of Solferino, her Majefty's Mayor-domo Mayor.

to that Place, to her Hufband the Duke of Solferino, her Majefty's Mayor-domo Mayor. Drefden, Jan. 9. On Sunday laft we received Advice that fome Auffrian Pandours, having attempted to attack a fmall Body of Cavalry in their Quarters in Upper Lufatia, a Major, named Blumendahl, who had in Hafte put himfelf at the Head of only ten Horfemen to oppofe them, was unfortunately killed; but that, upon the Arrival of a fmall Body of Pruffians, the Pandours were difperfed with great Lofs. As the Major was efteemed a brave Man, and a good Officer, he is much regretted, even by his Pruffian Majefty himfelf. The Froft is fet in fo very hard in thefe Parts, that the like fevere Weather has not been felt in this Country for fome Years.

Drefden, Jan. 16. On Friday laft, the 14th Inftant, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, his Pruffian Majefty returned hither in good Health from Berlin. Several Thoufand Waggons are making in the different Towns and Villages of Saxony, for carrying of the Pruffian Magazines either into Bohemia or Silefia. Orders are given for augmenting each Company of the Regiments of Infantry with 40 Men; and the Canoneers are bufy in the Arfenal in preparing Cartridges, &c. In fhort, the Pruffians are very induftrious in providing all Things neceffary for the next Campaign, which, in all Probability, will be a very bloody one. Letters from Warfaw affirm, that there are great Commotions among the Polanders, who feem not a little uneafy at the Intention of the Ruffians to march through their Country; and; 'tis reported here, that the Polifh Palace in Warfaw is already or-dered to be barricadoed. A Paper, figned by his Polifh Majefty, has been publifhed here, in which the Saxon Generals are accused of Cowardice and Difobedience, for not attacking the Pruffians when they left the Camp near Pirna; but, it is thought, if they had attempted it, the Pruffians were fo advantageoufly pofted, that the Saxon Army would have been deftroyed. The Saxon Generals feem greatly diffatisfied with fo undeferved an Imputation, and think it a bad Return for the Hardships they fuffered in their Camp.

Brussels, Jan. 28. Prince Charles of Lorrain fat out early this Morning for Vienna, where his Royal Highness expects to arrive next Tuefday Se'nnight. As the Price of Corn has been daily increasing in this Country fince last Har-vest, a Placard was published two Days ago, bearing Date the 18th Instant, to prohibit, on fevere Penalties, the Exportation of all Manner of Grain, Meal, Bread, and Vegetables. The Brewers are likewife forbidden to brew either Wheat or Rye. And in order to prevent Monopolies, and the Forestalling of Grain, all Farmers and others, who have any Quantity there-of, are enjoined to carry it to the publick Markets : The Country People however are allowed to fell to their Neighbours, as much as is neceffary for their own private Ule, provided the Buyer carries it home on his Head or Shoulders.

LIS Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, doth hereby fignify his Pleasure, That all such Officers, belonging to the Second Battalion of His Majesty's First or Ro; at Regiment of Foot, and also to His Majesty's Seventsenth.

Seventeenth, Twenty Seventh, Twenty Eighth, Forty Third, Forty Sixth, and Fifty Seventh Regiments of Foot, commanded respectively by Lieutenant General St. Clair, Major General Richbell, Lord Blakeney, Escutenant General Bragg, Major General Rennedy, Major General Murray, and Colonel Perry, in Ireland, as are abjent from their refperive Posts in that Kingdom, do forthwith repair to them, and join their respective Corps, as foom as possible, and at all Events on or before the Fifteenth Day of this Instant February 1757, and his Grace expetts that these his Orders be pantially obeyed.
