Copenhagen, Jan. 22. The Marriage lately concluded between the Duke of Saxe Hildbourghausen, and the Princess of Culmbach, was celebrated on the 20th Instant; in the Apartments of the Queen Dowager; by whom this accomplished Princess, her Majesty's Niece, has been bred up almost from her Infancy. And the Marriage lately concluded between Count Schack and the Countess Moltke, one of the Queen's Maids of Honour, and second Daughter to the Grand Marshal, was celebrated, a few Days ago, in the Presence of the Royal Family. After having supped with their Danish Majesties, as it is the Custom on such Occasions, the Bridegroom and the Bride were conducted in the State Coach to the new built Palace belonging to Count Schack, where they are to reside. Last Week a Fire broke out at the House of a Sugar Baker in this City, which burnt with such Violence, that all the Efforts made to stop its Progress proved ineffectual, and the whole new Building, which was very large, was entirely reduced to Ashes.

Vienna, Jan. 22. The Physicians attending the Archduke Joseph, have represented to their Imperial Majesties, that the Small Pox, with which that young Prince was seized a few Days ago, proves to be a favourable Sort, and that they apprehend him to be already out of Danger. The Frost has been very severe in this Country for some Time past, but it seems now going off; and our Letters to Day from Lower Austria assure us, that great Damage has been done to the Bridge built over the Danube near Crems, by the breaking of the Ice.

Hambourg, Jan. 25. On the 16th Instant, a publick Collection was made by the English Company of Merchant Adventurers established here, for the immediate Relief of the most necessitous Poor, who, from the very severe Winter, and the high Price of Corn, &c. have been reduced to the utmost Misery, when their Chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Murray, preached an excellent Sermon upon the Occasion. After which, a very considerable Sum was collected, at which the Senate expressed great Satisfaction.

Cogné, Jan. 31. Yesterday Prince Charles of Lorraine passed under the Ramparts of this City, on his Way from the Low Countries to Vienna; but as he travels incognito, our Magistrates were excused from paying his Royal Highness the Honours due to his Rank.

Brussels, Feb. 4. Several of the Members of the Parliament of Paris who had thrown up their Employments, having refused to apply to the Chancellor, according to the French King's Orders, to be reinstated, sixteen of the most considerable of them have been exiled, by Lettres de Cachet, to different Parts of the Kingdom.

Hague, Feb. 5. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante has been pleased to appoint M. Brouwer, Counsellor of the Regency of the City of Middlebourg, to be Receiver General of all the publick Duties and Taxes paid by the District of Middlebourg. They write from Amsterdam, that the Admiralty of that City have lately put five Men of War into Commission.
