WHEREAS John Campbell, late of Osbaldwick, in the North-Riding of Yorkshire, a Prisoner in the Castle of York, for Felony, made his Escape from thence in a Soldier's Habit, on Tuesday the 8th of February 1757, having found Means to file off his Irons. He is about five Feet seven Inches high, and about 35 Years of Age, his Face somewhat Pockfretten, with several Scars, fair Complexion, and rather ruddy, his Beard inclined to sandy; one of his Legs a little bowed, having been broke some Time since; generally wears a light Wig. He speaks the South Country Dialect, is reputed to be a common Gambler, and well known at all Horse Races and Cockings, and pretends to have been employed in buying Horses for Gentlemen; Whoever will apprehend and secure the said John Campbell, in any Goal in England, shall receive Twenty Guineas Reward of Thomas Wharton, Keeper of the Castle of York.

ON Thursday June 5, 1755, His Majesty

was pleased to confer on Dr. William Lowther, the Honour of his Royal Letters Patent, for his great Invention of the Anti-Epileptick Nervous Powders: Famous for the many surprizing Cures they have performed in all Sorts of Fits, Nervous and Paralytick Complaints, being the best ad. p. red Medicine ever yet invented (and almost an infallible Specific) for the above Disorders. A few Doses, taken the New of every Moon, are a sure Preservative against Apoplexies, and those Persons who have experienced one Fit, by following the above Rule, will certainly prevent their ever having any other. They are pleasant to the Taste, may be taken at all Seasons, and are far beyond any Salts or Mineral Water whatever, in sweetening and purifying the Blood; and what greatly adds to the Preference, they generally operate insensibly.

These Powders are sold only at Brooke's Warehouse, facing Water-Lane, Fleet-Street, where Dr. Lowther attends Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from Ten o'Clock to One, to give his Advice Gratis, in all Cases of Fits, Nervous Complaints, and Disorders incident to the Fair Sex.
