From Tuesday March 1, to Saturday March 5, 1757.

AT the Court at St. James's the 1st Day of March, 1757,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Fourth of February last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Tenth Day of this Instant March: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seaman and Landman respectively, who shall, on or before the Twelfth Day of April next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twelfth Day of April next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Turin, Feb. 9. Last Week the Comte de Stainville, the French Ambassador to the Court of Rome, passed through this City in his Way to Paris.

Brussels, Feb. 25. It is still said, that the French Troops, which are to form an Army upon the Lower Rhine, will begin to move about the Middle of March; and this Report is confirmed by some French Officers, who arrived here a few Days ago. The General Officers who are to command this Army are not yet declared.

Whitehall, February 25, 1757.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Mr. Richard Baggallay, Clerk to the Undertakers for Burning Lime, &c. at Poorfleet, in the County of Essex, was, on Wednesday the 2d Instant, about Six o'Clock in the Evening, in coming, on Horseback, from Rumsford Market, in the said County of Essex, and going down Burkit Hill, attacked, on turning the Corner near Marditch Bridge, by two Persons, one of whom fired a Pistol at him, (the Ball of which went through his Hat,) and bid him stop, or he would blow off his Head; and the other gave him several blows with a Stick, and otherwise abused him; His Majesty, for the better discovering, and bringing to Justice the Persons who committed the said Crimes, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to the one of them who did not fire the Pistol, at the said Richard Baggallay, as above-mentioned, provided he discovers the other, who did actually fire the same, so that he may be apprehended, and convicted of the said Crime.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a farther Encouragement I, William Smith, of Blackfryers, Agent to the Undertakers above-mentioned, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender.

William Smith.
