

Whitehall, March 29, 1757.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the 27th Day of June, in the Year 1755, George Bright, an Officer to the then Sheriff of His Majesty's County of Cornwall, being, in the Execution of his Office, levying a Sum of Money on the Goods and Chattels of John Cock, of Endellion, in the said County, Esq; by Virtue of the said Sheriff's Warrant, on a Writ of Fieri Facias, issued out of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, at the Suit of Arundell Cock, Gent. was barbarously murdered by a Shot, received from a Gun, fired at him by the said John Cock; and that a Bill of Indictment was found against the said John Cock, for the said Murder, at the then next Assizes held at Bodmin in and for the said County of Cornwall; but that, notwithstanding legal Processes have been issued on the said Indictment, and all possible Endeavours used, for apprehending and bringing to Justice the said John Cock, he has been, and continues still to be, so invironed and protected by a Sett of desperate Persons, that, the same have, hitherto, proved ineffectual.—His Majesty, for the better and more speedy apprehending and bringing to Justice him the said John Cock, is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall so apprehend and secure him, that he may be brought to a legal Trial for the said Murder; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon his, the said John Cock's, Conviction for the said Crime.

HOLDERNESSE.

Treasury Chambers, March 15, 1757.
