

Turin, March 23. Friday the 19th Instant being Madame Felicité's Birth-day, her Royal Highness was pleased to receive the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers and of the Nobility upon that Occasion.

Dresden, March 30. On Thursday last the King of Prussia set out for Lockowitz, an Estate belonging to the Widow Rackenitz, about a German Mile from hence. As his Majesty was followed by all his Retinue, as also by the whole Regiment of Guards, and as the Time for the Opening of the Campaign approaches, and all the Regiments in this City and its Neighbourhood are kept in Readiness for marching on the first Notice, 'tis thought he will not return here again before the Campaign opens. Last Monday Baron Kessel, Governor of the Princes Albert and Clement, was arrested in his Apartment, as was likewise the Day after the Countess of Ogilvi, her Polish Majesty's first Lady of Honour, but the next Day she was set at Liberty. 'Tis said they carried on an illicit Correspondence with the Austrians in Bohemia. Since that Time two Huntsmen, in the Service of the Princes Xaverius and Charles, who had been at Warsaw, and afterwards in Bohemia with the Princes their Masters, and who attempted to slip into this City without being examined, have been secured and sent to Spandau; whither 60 Saxon Malefactors, condemned formerly to work at the Fortifications here, are also transported.

Copenhagen, April 2. On the 31st past the Anniversary of the King of Denmark's Birth-day, who then entered upon the 35th Year of his Age, was celebrated with great Demonstrations of Joy and Magnificence; but, on Account of the Lent-Season, there was only an elegant Dinner and Supper, at several Tables, but no Ball at Court. And although this Festivity has been usually the Occasion of Promotions, yet none were made by His Danish Majesty this Year. However, a Silver Medal, which had been struck upon the Erection of the Academy for Painting, Sculpture, and Architecture, in the Year 1754, (bearing the King's Bust on one Side, and a Female Figure on the other, with a Laurel Wreath in her Hand, and several Instruments about her, and with the Words alio artes over her Head) was presented to all Persons of Distinction, who had the Honour of dining at Court.

Dresden, April 3. His Prussian Majesty continues still at Lockowitz, with his Regiment of Guards quartered in the neighbouring Villages. On Wednesday forty Pontons were carried from hence to Pirna. All the Prussian Regiments are filing off one after another, and 'tis reported they take the Road towards Freyberg.

As several Soldiers belonging to the Saxon Regiment of Light Horse of Rutowsky, to the Number of 150, have joined in one Body and deserted, having obliged the Major that commanded them to lead them into Bohemia; and as almost the same has happened with Part of the Saxon Regiment of Infantry of Prince Maximilian, his Prussian Majesty has caused all the Saxon Regiments to be broke, and the Soldiers incorporated with the other Prussian Regiments. When the Saxons desert from hence and go into Bohemia, they are not inrolled, but are sent to some remote Places in Bohemia and Austria, where they are kept together. When her Majesty the Queen of Poland was informed of these Desertions, she expressed her Disapprobation thereof in the strongest Terms, as she foresaw that the Country would be obliged to furnish other Recruits. And accordingly Orders are already issued, requiring the Magistrates to deliver upwards of 4000 more Recruits with all Speed. On Thursday last, the Countess of Bruhl, Wife to the Prime Minister, was arrested at her Palace, and is guarded by an Officer, two subaltern Officers, and Twenty-five Soldiers.

Brussels, April 5. On Saturday arrived here the two remaining Battalions of Picardie, which were followed on Sunday by about 300 Men of La Motte's Battalion of Artillery, but without any Part of the Train, which, they say, consists of 50 Pieces of Cannon, and will follow very soon, with the Remainder of that Battalion. Yesterday the Regiment of Cavalry of Saluces, consisting of two Squadrons, arrived also at this Place, and proceeded again this Morning for Louvain. The Van Guard of the second Division, consisting of two Battalions of the Grenadiers Royaux is expected here on Saturday next.

Liege, April 6. The Regency having agreed that the French Troops intended for the Army on the Lower Rhine, should pass through this Principality, and be supplied with Provisions, &c. the two first Battalions of the first Division of that Army, arrived here accordingly on Friday last, and have been successively followed by two Battalions or two Squadrons every Day, who, after resting 24 Hours, continue their March towards Ruremond. Notwithstanding the Whole of the first Division will not have left this Place before Sunday next, yet Part of the second Division arrived to Day; and it appears by the General Route of this Army, that the last two Squadrons thereof will not pass through this City till the 25th Instant.

Admiralty