AT the Court at St. James's the 10th Day of May, 1757,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of April last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirteenth Day of June next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirteenth Day of June next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Hen. Fane.

Lisbon, May 3. Abraham Castres, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, died here Yesterday, and will be interred To-morrow, in the burying Ground belonging to his Britannick Majesty's Subjects, according to his own Desire. His Pall is to be supported by Eight of the Principal Persons of the Factory. The Body will be attended by his Household Servants; and the Secretary of State has offered a Guard of Horse to accompany it.

Madrid, May 10. The King has received Advice, by an extraordinary Dispatch from the President of the Board of the Indian Trade at Cadiz, that, on the 30th of last Month, his Majesty's Frigate the Nuestra Senora de la Concepcion, and a Merchant Ship called the Victorioso, anchored in that Bay, the former on her Return from Carthagen, and the latter from Vera Cruz. The Cargo of the first, belonging to his Majesty and the Merchants, consists of 629195 hard Dollars in Silver, and in coined and wrought Gold; 964 C. of Sugar, 1216 C. of Shells, 52 C.  $\frac{1}{2}$  of Woad, 553 Fur Skins, 762 Quintals of Cocoa Nuts, with other Fruits and Effects. The Cargo of the Victorioso consists of 39156 Dollars, 2011 C.  $\frac{3}{4}$  of Cochineal, 1643 C.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of Woad, 321 C. of Jallop Root, 3392 C. of Sugar, 393 C. of Tobacco in Rolls, 107 C.  $\frac{3}{4}$  of Cocoa Nuts, 1944 tanned Hides, 1064 Quintals of Copper, 500 Quintals of Campechy Wood, and other Effects.

Camp before Pragus, May 18. Since the 11th Instant, a great Number of Deferters have come in. The Prisoners are sent to Budin, and, by all Accounts, the Victory has been more compleat than was at first apprehended. The King of Prussia has sent Detachments beyond the Beraun. They met with no Resistance, every Thing in that Part of the Country having been abandoned by the Austrians. The Troops that fled that Way were dispersed, and many of them have straggled into the Upper Palatinate, and neighbouring Countries. Those beyond the Safawa are said to be assembling at Beneschau, but their Number is not yet considerable. The only Army we hear of, is that of Count Daun, which advanced from Koniggratz towards Boemischbrod; but, upon the Approach of the Detachment commanded by the Prince of Bevern, retired, and now occupies a strong Post between Suchdol and Kuttenberg. Count Daun's Army is said to be augmented to 25 or 30,000; and the King of Prussia has reinforced the Prince of Bevern's Detachment, which is at Krzib, within one Mile and half of the Enemy. Lieutenant Colonel Meyer, Commander of an independent Battalion, was detached the Day after the Battle, with one Battalion of Prussian Pandours, and 400 Hussars, to destroy the Magazine at Pilsen, in which he has succeeded: That Magazine is said to be very considerable and valuable. He has likewise burnt several lesser Magazines, and is since gone into the Upper Palatinate. Col. Meyer's Conduct is greatly applauded, as what he has done will effectually cut off the Succours the Austrians might have expected from the Empire; which, if they should march, cannot now find Subsistence. In Prague every Thing is very quiet, hardly a Cannon Shot fired; they are busy in Repairing the Ramparts and Parapets. The Prussians are active and vigilant: They have raised Redoubts and Flèches in the proper Places.
