AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 13th Day of June, 1757.

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Earl of Home, to be Lord Lieutenant of the Shire of Berwick in North-Britain—His Lordship this Day took and subscribed the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and also subscribed the Affu-

Vienna, June 1. Marshal Daun's Army is still at, or near Czaflau, and is said here to consist of 41,000 regular Foot, and 11,000 Horse and Dragoons, besides 15,000 Irregulars. It is composed of 46 Battalions, and between 30 and 40 Companies of Grenadiers; 16 Regiments of Horse and Dragoons, besides 18 Squadrons of Saxon Cavalry; 8 Battalions of Croates, as many Companies of Grenadiers, and about 5,000 Hussars, with a Train of Artillery of above 100 Pieces of Ordnance; and the Day before Yesterday 45 Pieces of Cannon, from 12 to 3 Pounders, were sent from hence to join that Army; and 50 more are getting ready in the Arsenal, to be sent thither forthwith. Marshal Daun still expects a Reinforcement of four other Battalions of Foot, besides the three of the Garrison of Vienna, which marched out of this City last Week. The Troops that were gathered together at Beneshau, are now dispersed in the Villages upon the Skirts of Moravia and Austria; and they are busy here in getting ready Arms, Tents, and Accoutrements for them. It is said that in the late Battle 13 Imperial Regiments lost their regimental Chests. Last Week the Empress Queen demanded, and obtained, of the States of Lower Austria, a Loan of 900,000 Florins, to be paid in three Months, in equal Payments; and, besides, a Sum of 100,000 Crowns for Carriages, &c. Count Czernichew, a Major General, arrived here within these few Days, from the Russian Army, with an Account that the Troops of that Nation were defiling from all Quarters, and would be all at the General Rendezvous as on the 30th of last Month.

Camp before Prague, June 1. The 24th and 25th the Prussian Army was kept alert, as another Sally, from the Town, was expected, but, it was not, however, attempted, and, except a few slight Skirmishes, between the Austrian and Prussian Pandours, nothing happened till Sunday the 29th of May, when, at Midnight, (for some Hours before which there had been heavy Rain and Thunder,) his Prussian Majesty's Army, by the Signal of a Sky-Rocket, thrown for that Purpose, from the King's Battery, began firing upon the Town from one Battery on this Side the Moldau, and from three other Batteries on the other Side of that River, all which Batteries, being extremely well served, have continued firing incessantly ever since; and the Bombs and red hot Balls have had their Effect, by setting the Town on Fire in several Places, which burnt furiously last Night, and this
