

Vienna, June 11. It is the general Opinion here, that however scarce other Provisions may be in Prague, that they have Meal sufficient for the Garrison for yet a considerable Time. On Sunday last an Order was read from all the Pulpits in the Town, forbidding all Persons whatever, under severe Penalties, to talk of Politicks, War, &c.

Hague, June 17. By our last Advices from Bohemia, the Prussian Army, under the Command of the Duke of Bevern, had approached nearer to Marshal Daun, upon his left Flank, which made it be imagined that an Action might happen, unless the latter retired backward to Moravia, which it is supposed he will do.

Capt. Hyde Parker, of his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Squirrel, is arrived at Embden, where he has stopt all the Forage which was carried that Way to the French Army.

Hague, June 24. We have Letters from the Head Quarters of the Army upon the Weser, dated at Holtzhausen the 18th, which bring an Account, that from the 14th to the 16th Instant his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland had marched to the Weser, and passed that River without any Interruption, notwithstanding an Attack on the Rear Guard at Bielefeld and Hervord, in which the Enemy was repulsed with considerable Loss. The Loss on the Side of the Allied Army consisted of 44 Men, killed, wounded, and Prisoners, of which Number, one Officer is killed, and two wounded. The French themselves own, that they gained no Advantage over the Rear Guard of the Allied Army; and that they suffered considerably in the Attack.

Cologne, June 20. This Day the first Division of the Palatine Troops are to move from Derendorff to Mittman, To-morrow to Elverfeldt. They will be 15 Days before they arrive at Arefenberg, where they are to join the Corps under M. de Chevert. The Elector of Mentz, the Margrave of Anspach, and the Bishop of Wurtzburg, have wrote to the Elector of Cologne, in the most pressing Terms, to furnish his Contingent of Troops to the Circle. The Elector has accordingly encamped the two Regiments of the Electorate, and ordered new Levies to be made with the greatest Expedition; but it is believed the Troops will not be in a Hurry to march from hence. The Siege of Gueldre was begun last Wednesday. M. de Courten has the Command of the Troops employed in it. The Cavalry that remain'd at Ruremonde are march'd to Wesel.

Brussels, June 24. Yesterday arrived here from Valenciennes the two Battalions of Militia of Du Mont and Daney, each of 650 Men, being the first Division of the 6000 Militia that are going to garrison the Places in Westphalia, which are in the Possession of the French.

To-morrow two more Battalions, One of Grenadiers, and the other of St. Pré, are likewise expected here from Lille. Our last Advices from Marshal d'Estrees's Army are of the 21st, but contain nothing of Moment since their Arrival at Bielefeld.

General Post-Office, December 20, 1756.

Whereas the Post Boy carrying the Worcester Mail from hence to Southall, was, on Sunday Morning the 12th instant, between the Hours of Four and Five of the Clock, attacked and robbed on the Road near Shepherds Bush, by a Footpad, who laid hold of the Bridle of the Post Boy's Horse, and bid him dismount, and afterwards led the said Horse into a Lane near the great Road, and from thence into a Field adjoining, and there near to a Hay Rick took off the Mail from the Horse, opened it, and afterwards the Letters contained in the following Bags, viz. Camden, Chipping-Norton, Eversham, Burford, Whitney, Woodstock, Oxford, Ludlow, Bromyard, Worcester, Tbame, Southall, Gerrard's Cross, Uxbridge, High Wickham, and Baconsfeld.

Note, The following Bags in the said Mail were unopened, viz. Shipstun, Enston, and Tenbury; and the said Foot-pad, after detaining the Post Boy upwards of two Hours, mounted the said Post Boy's Horse, and rode off with the same towards Acton, which Horse was found the same Morning about Eight o'Clock near the Turnpike at Hyde Park Corner.

The Person who committed this Robbery has since put off several of the Bank Notes, and indorsed the Name of James Wilson thereon, to several Innkeepers on the Road to Caxton, by travelling Post in Post-Chaises with four Horses, by the Way of Barnet, Hatfield, Stevenage, and Bugden, and returning from Caxton by Way of Roylton, Ware, and Enfield to London, where he was set down at Gray's Inn Gate in Gray's Inn Lane, about Twelve o'Clock at Noon, on Tuesday the 14th instant. This Person is described to be rather above the Middle-size, of a brown Complexion, very thin Visage and Body, with an effeminate Voice; he had on a Silver-laced Hat with a Cockade, blue Surtout Coat with Brass Buttons, a dark brown close-bodied Coat underneath, a Pair of Breeches with Silver Gartering at the Knees, his Wig or Hair, or both mixed was a dark brown, and tied behind with a Ribbon.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post Master General,
George Shetwocke, Secretary.

General