AT the Court at Kensington, the 9th Day of August, 1757.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Eighth of July last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty Third Day of September next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty Third Day of September next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Turin, Aug. 3. We hear that on the 12th of last Month there was an Engagement in the Bay of Cagliari between Captain Gwynn, Commander of his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Ambuscade, and the Captain of a French Privateer called the Invincible; after firing at each other for above an Hour, the Privateer, who lost about 50 Men, struck. There were only three Men killed on board the Ambuscade; and on the 13th she arrived with her Prize at Cagliari.

Turin, August 5. M. de Castrès, who was sent last Year to command the French Troops in Corsica, passed through this City, a few Days since, to join the Army assembling at Strasbourg, where he has obtained Leave to serve as a Marechal de Camp, under the Orders of the Duke de Richlieu.

Amsterdam, August 17. The Directors of our East India Company received Advice, a few Days ago, that Six of their Ships from the East Indies were safely arrived in the Texel; two from China, and four from Batavia.

Treasury Chambers, August 4, 1757.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury being informed that printed Schemes had been published in the City of Dublin and in England, for an Irish Lottery, to be determined by the drawing of the present State Lottery, hath given Directions to their Solicitor for prosecuting all Persons that have or shall be any ways concerned therein.
