Rome, Aug. 6. The Pope is so well re-established in his Health, as to be able to go daily Abroad in a Chair. On the 18th past he held a Consistory, in which he disposed of eleven vacant Bishopricks in divers States, agreeable to the Nomination of the respective Sovereigns.

Leghorne, Aug. 8. On Friday last sailed from hence Admiral Osborn, with six Ships of the Line, two Frigates, and a Tender. The next Day arrived his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Ambuscade, with four French Prizes taken by Men of War and Privateers, with her own Prize the Vainqueur, a French Privateer of 24 Guns, nine and twelve Pounders on one Deck, and 360 Men, which he took off of Cagliari, after about one Hour and three Quarters close Engagement. The Vainqueur had a Companion, a Xebec, who also engaged with him, but made off just as the Vainqueur struck. This Privateer was one of the largest that was out of Marfeilles, and had done great Mischief to the English Trade in these Parts. This Morning sailed from hence two French Xebecs, one of 20 and the other of 18 Guns; they have been here for some Time, and have directed their Course towards Corsica.

Turin, Aug. 10. M. Chauvelin, the French Ambassador, returned Yesterday to this City from Parma, where he went after he had settled with the Duke of Modena at Milan, all that related to the Marriage Contract of the Princess Fortunata.
