AT the Court at Kensington, the 9th Day of August, 1757,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Eighth of July last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty Third Day of September next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty Third Day of September next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Warsaw, July 20. The 14th Instant Marshal Lehwalt left his Camp at Insterburg, and is now encamped with his whole Army in the Neighbourhood of Welaw, which will enable him to cover Konigberg, and obstruct the March of the Russians under General Fermor. Marshal Apraxin's Army advances very slowly, if at all.

Warsaw, Aug. 3. The last Accounts from Lithuania say, that Marshal Apraxin has sent several small Detachments into Prussia, and is with his whole Army within half a German Mile of the Frontiers. M. de Sibilki, a Polish General now in the Russian Service, is to have the Command of a considerable Body of Cossacks, and other Light Troops, with which he is to enter the Southern Side of Prussia; Felt Marshal Lehwalt continues in his Camp at Welaw, but has sent a considerable Detachment to guard the Coasts of Prussia, and prevent the Russians landing.

Dresden, Aug. 14. The Letters from the Prussian Army say, that since the Arrival of the Convoy there is great Plenty in their Camp, but the Austrians are very ill supplied, and that this Scarcity of Provisions occasions a great Desertion among their Troops. Prince Maurice with his Corps remains at Cotta; his Out-Parties have frequent Skirmishes with the Pandours, but he still keeps Possession of Gottleube and Gishubel. The Prince Royal of Prussia is still here.

Dresden,

[Price Three-Pence.]
