AT the Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September, 1757,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of August last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Fifteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Rome, Sept. 13. We have received an Account from Monte Pulciano, of a violent Hurricane that happened there last Week, by which several Houses, and a Convent of Nuns, were thrown down, under the Ruins of which many of the Nuns perished. The Pope, in Compliance with the frequent Solicitations from the

[Price Three-Pence.]

Court of Spain, to confirm many vacant Bishopricks and other considerable Benefices, which the King has already disposed of, has fixed a Conistory for the 19th Instant, for that Purpose. The Court of Rome has agreed with the Grand Master of Malta, for the Release of 159 Moors, who were taken lately by the Pope's Frigates and Gallies. On the 4th sailed from Civita Vecchia the Maltese Gallies on their Return to that Island.

Florence, Sept. 17. The Palace is getting ready for Marquis Botta with all Expedition, he being expected here towards the latter End of this Month; and Dispositions are also making to place the Chancery of the Imperial Fiefs of Italy in the Old Palace. For these three Posts successively we have been deprived of the English and Dutch Letters. Those from Germany had been retarded for a Week by the Overflowing of some Rivers, by which a great Tract of Land in the Venetian State was laid under Water; the City of Verona in particular has suffered considerably. Last Week died the Duke Salviati, Grand Veneur of Tuscany.

Hague, Oct. 4. On the 20th past Marshal Apraxin was at Tilsit with his Army, and had continued his March Homewards on the following Days. We hear that Marshal Richelieu entered the King of Prussia's Dominions with his Army on the 27th, 28th, and 29th past, in three Columns; upon which Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick has retired with his Detachment towards Magdebourg. We do not know any Thing further with Certainty about the King of Prussia's Army; though the Reports are, that that Prince intends to turn his Force towards Marshal Richelieu; and if the latter does not chuse to risk a Battle, at least to cover Magdebourg and Halberstadt, and prevent the French from taking Winter Quarters there.

Whitehall, October 11.

By a Messenger arrived this Day, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was about a Mile off the Suffolk Coast Yesterday at Six o'Clock in the Evening; and expected to land soon after.

Whitehall, October 11.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Warburton, Doctor of Divinity, and one of His Majesty's Chaplains in Ordinary, the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Bristol, void by the Death of Doctor Thomas Chamberlayne.

Admiralty

Admiralty Office, October 11, 1757.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That the Manz Dogger, Captain Gerrit Van Nyn, Burthen about 100 Tons, and Nine Men, from Rotterdam to Bilboa, ran on the Goodwin Sands the 7th Instant, and is bulged and lost, and that the Captain and Crew got safe on Shore at Deal, and the Goods under-mentioned are saved and secured under the King's Locks at that Port, viz.

- 117 Bolts of Canvas,
- 10 Casks of Sugar,
- 4 Bundles of Whalebone,
- 11 Casks of Salmon,
- 36 Sacks of Beans.

Whitehall, October 11, 1757.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some Weeks since, a Libel was pasted up, in a very publick Place in the City of Edinburgh, falsely accusing the Magistrates, and some of the principal Dealers in Grain, in that City, as guilty of Male-Practices in relation to the Prices of Grain, and inciting the Mob to rise and murder them all; and that many incendiary and seditious Letters have, since, been sent to the Magistrates and Dealers, and some of the other Inhabitants of the said City; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who wrote the Libel, and Letters above-mentioned, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of his or their Accessories in the said Facts, who shall discover him or them, the Authors or Writers of the said Libel and Letters, so that he, or they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and likewise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Persons guilty of the said Crimes.

HOLDERNESSE.

Whitehall, October 7, 1757.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That on Wednesday the Fifth Day of this Instant October, the Wind Mill belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Hardwicke, situate upon Orwell-Hill, in the Parish of Halton in the County of Cambridge, was burnt down; The Fire beginning, (as it is apprehended) between Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, and the Whole having been consumed in about four Hours; and that there are strong Grounds of Suspicion that the said Mill was wilfully set on Fire by some evil-disposed and wicked Persons: His Majesty, to the End that such audacious and heinous Crimes may be discovered and punished with the utmost Rigour of Law, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders concerned in burning the said Mill, or any of their Accessories, who shall first discover, and give Information against, any other of the said Offenders, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Earl of Hardwicke hereby promises to pay to such Discoverer as aforesaid, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds as a Reward, upon the Conviction of any of the said Offenders.

Hardwicke.

Navy Office, October 1, 1757.

The principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that there is in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Navy, Money to pay off all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy in the Month of April 1757, in order that the Proprietors of, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the said Bills, may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment accordingly.

Navy Office, October 8, 1757.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Tuesday the 15th of next Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, Commissioner Kuyth will expose to Sale at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, Several Parcels of Old Stores, consisting of Old Canvas, Colours, Kevley, Hammaccoss, Nail Bags, Nets with Leads and Corks, Hand Lanthorns, Cast Iron in Pots and Furnices, decay'd Locks, old Rope, Ditto in Paper Stuff, White Ocham, &c. which are laid a-part in 57 Lots, where such Persons as are willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them, at any Time in the working Hours of the said Yard, till the Day of Sale: And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Stores, all Persons that shall attend the said Sale are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose; and unless the Stores so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of Forty Days after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited and become the Property of the Crown.

Mercer's Hall, October 7, 1757.

The Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the City of London, do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 15th of November next, they will pay the Half-year's Annuities that will become due to the said Company's Annuitants upon the 10th Day of October Instant, and also the Half-year's Interest that will become due upon the said 10th Day of October, on the Notes or Certificates given by the said Company for the Arrears due to their Annuitants at Michaelmas 1750; and that they will, on the said 15th of November; pay 10 l. per Cent. upon the principal Money now remaining due on the said Notes or Certificates; and that all Interest upon the said 10 l. per Cent. is to cease from the said 10th of October Instant. And that Attendance will, for that Purpose, be given at the Clerk's Office at Mercers Hall, in London, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 15th, 16th and 17th Days of the said Month of November, from Nine in the Morning till One, and upon every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afterwards, at the same Hours, Holidays excepted.

W. Cawne, Clerk.

By

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Veneral Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Veneral Injuries, and all the lurking Relicts or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Veneral Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Glects, are absolutely cured.

The said Electuary is also sold by Mrs. Adams, at her Printing Office in West Chester; Mr. Brown, Bookseller, in Crisfmas Street, Bristol; and at Mr. Bowen's, the South End of the Royal Exchange.

Pursuant to an Order made by the Right Hon. Sir Robert Henley, Knt. Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for enlarging the Time for Rudolph Gingen, of the Parish of St. Mary-le-bone in the County of Middlesex, Vic-tualler, a Bankrupt, to make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects for Forty nine Days, to be computed from the 4th Day of October Instant; This is to give Notice, That the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, will meet on the 22d Day of November next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; when and where the said Bankrupt is required to surrender himself, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects, and finish his Examination, and the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts, may then and there come and prove the same, and assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Thomas Rix, late of Stanfield in the County of Norfolk, Glover and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 7th and 8th of November next, at the House of Robert Lambert, known by the Sign of the Black Lyon, in Little Walsingham in the said County, and on the 22d Day of the said November, at the House of Mary Parsons, Widow, known by the Sign of the King's Head, in Little Walsingham aforesaid, at Ten in the Forenoon, on each of the said Days, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Nathaniel Cowper, at Little Walsingham aforesaid.
