AT the Court at Kensington, the 20th Day of September, 1757,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of August last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Fifteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January last: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Fifteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

[Price Three-Pence.]

St. James's, November 8.

This Day about Noon his Majesty, and the rest of the Royal Family, came from Kensington to reside here for the Winter.

Admiralty Office, November 8.

Letters received from Vice-Admiral Holburne, dated Newark at Sea, the 29th and 30th of September, give an Account, That on the 24th of the same Month, being then about ten Leagues South of Louisbourg, towards the Evening of that Day, it began to blow very hard at East; but veering round to the Southward, it blew a perfect Hurricane, and continued violent till near Eleven next Day, in which Time, ten Ships of the Line were dismasted; whereof the following Eight, with Rear-Admiral Sir Charles Hardy, and Commodore Holmes, are arrived at Spithead and Portsmouth, viz.

The other two Ships, with the rest of the Squadron, (except the Tilbury, which is feared to be lost) remain with Vice-Admiral Holburne.

Dantzic, Oct. 19. There are still four Russian Men of War lying at Anchor in our Road, and two or three more hovering some Leagues off the Harbour.

Copenhagen, Oct. 22. The Danish Squadron returned hither two Days ago, and lies now at Anchor in this Road. 'Tis said that the Swedes put into Marstrand on the 17th.

Hague, Nov. 1. The Austrians are still observing the Prince of Bevern near Breslau, without attempting any Thing; and the Siege of Schweidnitz goes on slowly. It is said that the Duke of Wirtemberg has been killed before the Town;
