Heydelberg, March 16. Our Elector having (as we se sold is had advice, that the French had a defign to possels themselves of Gernsheim scituate on the Rhine, and belonging to the Elect. of Mayence, to prevent them, commanded two days fince Major Hennep to go with Certain Troops, and seize the said place I which, after some oppolition, he did, and put a Garison of 400 Men into it.

Cologne, March 19. The Elector of Brandenburgh has, as we understand, in his passage rowards Gleves, been visited by the Bishop of Muniter. The 17, his Electoral Highnels arrived at Wefel, and the next day intended to continue his journey to Cleves, whither the Marquel's de Grana is likewise gone from Bon. The French Troops which affembled about Maestricht, and very much alarmed the Imperialift's quartered in Liege, being difperled again, or at least giving the Imperiatiffs no farther apprehension of any design upon them. From the Palatinate they write; that the Elector Palatine had by way of prevention feized on a small place, though of great importance, called Gernsheim; and scituate on the Rhine, having had notice that the French designed to have gotten it into their hands; at which the Elector of Mayence, to whom it belongs is however not very well pleafed.

Brussels, March 22. The five Regiments designed to come hither from Holland for the Reinforcement of several of our Garisons, are actually on their march, one of them, is the Count de Horne's Regiment of Marine, confissing in 2000 Men. Several Colonels in the service of thele Countries, have of late quitted their Regiments, which his Excellency has refolved to reform, in order to the recruiting the other Troops. It is expected that the Prince of Orange will now very fiddenly affign the Rendezvous of his Army somewhere in Brabant, to which it is faid our Forces are to join, and fo to act under the conduct of his Highness, for the security of these Proin their preparations, which are for great, that according to the general report, they will be stronger this Cam-pagne, than they have been during this War. People here are much concerned to heart of the distrace the Spapilb. Armada suffered from Monsieur de Vivonne, who forced his way through them, and entred Messina, to the great prejudice of the affairs of the Crown of spain in thole parts. Our Letters from Madrid bring us not any thing considerable, only say, that Don Juan was on the point of parting for Italy, and that it was hoped his presence would change the face of things in Sicily, which hitherto have so ill a prospect towards the Spaniards. Her Majesty has not yet disposed of the vacant Governments of Namur, Luxemburgh and Hainzult: At Namur, the Marquels of Conflans commands pro interim; Mon-Genr de Louvigny in the Province of Luxemburgh, and the Marquels Ribberg at Mons.

Direc . March 26. His Excellency begins now with all possible diligence to prepare for the Campagne, has given Orders for the furnishing the dismounted Cava-liers with 100 Gilders a man, in order to the providing themselves with Horses and Arms; and has made an Agreement with the Officers of the several Regiments of Foot, to recruit them at the rate of nine Crowns and a half an head ... The five Dutch Regiments are arrived from Holland, and we feem to want as many more for the Reinforcing, our Garifons as they ought. We are greatly alarmed from all Parts with an account of the vall preparations of the French, whole first attempt, it's thought, will be upon Namur.

, which early the C

erfo roff greitro i arrija

Hague, March 23. After his Highness return from have 20 s. reward.

A Cheithut coloured drawing Mare, five years old, about 18 hands high, having upon her near too behind a blemiffer like a Ring-bone, stolen the 20 instant, by a middle statured man of utiddy complexion, about 25 years old, yellow hair, and cloathed in a grey cloth Coat. Whoever can give notice of her to Thomas Fleming Cow-keeper near the Hermitage in Wayping, London, shall have 20 s.

contain to

... gyddir

Cleves, it is expected he will fix the day for his deput; ture from hence towards the Army, which is defigned to have its Rendezvous in Brabant, though neither the time or place is as yet declared. From Ergland they write, that His Majesty of Great Britain has, as Mediacorsappointed His Ambaffadors for the Treaty at Nimeguen, and that they are the Lord John Berkeley of Stratton, formerly Lord Lieuenant of Ireland, Sir William Temple, at present His Majesties Ambassador here, and Sir Lionel Fenkins Judge of the Admirales in England and one of His Majesties Plenipotentiaries at the late Congress at Cologne. The Ambassadors of this State, will, its rhought, be the same that were at Cologne, joining with them fuch as shall be nominated by the Provinces of Wirecht, Gelderland, and Overyfel, readmitted fince that Congress into the Uhion.

Pair, March 27. Kellerday their Majestie, and the whole Court, removed from St. Germans to Verjailles, where the King intends to continue til the 15 of the next month, and then to begin his journey towards the Frontiers of Flanders the several Troops are ordered to be ready to march the 29 of this month. This day the Prince of Court comment to Versalies, the books at the intended to the ready of the Miller. from his house at the willy, perfectly recovered of his indispo-fition. His Majelly continues his resolution of sending accor-Foot to Miffind, under the Command of Monsieur Ville Dien's Footto Miffind, under the Command of Monsieur Vitte Dien's they are to be Transported on the Gallies that are fitting out at Marfeilles, who will now be very suddenly ready to Sail. We are told of Orders that have been senero Thousan for the steering out forthwith 15 Men of War to be sent into the Medicerranean, to join with the Fleet his Majesty already has in that Sea. The Psenipotethiaries, we told you in our last the King had nominated for the Treaty at Nineguen, prepare themselves for that employment, though we are assured. that they will not begin their journey, till the Pmptror has given satisfaction in the business of the Prince of Furstenders, and the Monies selected at Cologne. zed at Cologne.

Advertisements.

1 Opdo-actod in & - xumini. Or the Direct Method of Curing Chymically; wherein is contained the original Matter, and principal Agent of all Natural Bodies, Allo the efficient and material cause of Diseases in general Allo the efficient and material cause of Diseases in general.

1. Diaretically, by reclifying Eating, Drinking, &c. 2. Phartmaceutick, &c. To which is added the Art of Midwirety, Chymically Afferted, with the Character of an Ortho-Chymit and Pseudo-Chymit By George Tromson. D. Sold by Ben. Billingsby at the Printing Press, and S. Cronch at the end of Popes-bead Miley in Cornbol.

Oft out of a house in Chancery-lane four dores above the Olt out or a noute in conners core dotes above the Globe-Tayern, about a fortnight fince, a Bible in Quarto richly bound; having mofes and daren figured on the Leaves. If any Bookfeller, or other person, hath bought, or can procure the said Bible, and shall bring the same to the Primer of the Caneste living in the Sawoy they shall have no s. Reward, and what other Monies they have laid dut.

Sade-coloured Wastecoar, a black Petricoar, black Complexion, Run away from Mr. 1 eman Poulterer next door to the Sign of Robinhood in the Strand, hath-carried away a dressing Box with a Necklace of Pearler Silver Tankard, Silver Porringer, a Silver Cup, and Twenty pounds in money; belides a good quantity of fine Linnen. They that can give information of her, as above, shall have five pounds for a Re-

Oft Marches, from Robert Kidwell of Waybridge in Surrey, (one of His Majesties Ycoman of the Guard) a black brown gest Colt, with a white streak from his Eyes to his Nose, with R K burned upon his near Hip, about 14 handshigh, and two years old. If any person give notice of him to. Mr. Parsons at the Golden Anchoran St. Martin's Laneshe shall Chestnut coloured drawing Mare, five years old, about it