AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th Day of January 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Ninth of November last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Fourteenth Day of this Instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twenty-eighth Day of February next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Rome, Jan. 7. On the 28th past an Edict was put up in this City, notifying to the Publick the Suppression of the Farm of Tobacco, and all Duties thereon, which is to take Place on the 1st of April next. And to supply the Deficiency which this must occasion in the publick Revenues, the Price of Salt has been increased, and a Duty of One and a Half per Cent. is laid on the Importation of Foreign Goods. The Magistrate of Health, on Notice that an Epidemical Distemper reigns amongst the Cattle in Hungary and other Parts, has caused an Edict to be published, which prohibits any Cattle being brought into this Country out of the neighbouring States.

Turin, Jan. 11. On the 7th Instant the Court went into Mourning, for four Weeks, for the Death of the late Queen of Poland. Yesterday M. Chauvelin, the French Ambassador, set out for Paris.

Florence, Jan. 14. Three Battalions, consisting of 3200 Men, are ordered to be draughted out of the Tuscan Troops, and sent into Germany to join the Imperial Army; and they will accordingly begin their March about the Middle of next Month.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall, January 24, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Ruth Salmon, a Servant to Farmer Cave, of Caldecot, in the County of Rutland, was, on the 10th of October last, in the Evening, found dead, in an Orchard belonging to her Master, with her Throat cut, and is supposed to have been murdered, by Persons unknown, the Coroner's Inquest, who sat on the Body, having brought in their Verdict wilful Murder, by such Persons: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons guilty of that heinous Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplishes therein, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover the Person or Persons that really committed the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Earl of Exeter does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such
