At a numerous Meeting of the Commissioners appointed for carrying into Execution, An Act for building a Square at Deans Yard, Westminster, in Pursuance of Notice given for that Purpose in the London Gazette and Daily Papers, on Tuesday the 14th of this Instant, at the Standard Tavern in Palace-yard, Westminster, a certain Pamphlet intitled, "A Review of the Project for building a New Square at Westminster, said to be for the Use of Westminster School, by a Sufferer. Part the First," was taken into Consideration; and no Persons appearing to support the Facts alledged in the said Pamphlet, altho' requested by the said Advertisements; and Witnesses being examined as to the Truth of such Facts, the Commissioners were unanimously of Opinion, That the Grievances mentioned in the said Pamphlet had no Foundation; That the said Pamphlet seemed intended to influence the Opinions of Jurics, who may hereafter be summoned in Pursuance of the said Act; that the Whole of it was malicious and scandalous; and that every Fact, therein asserted, was either false or misrepresented.

And to shew their Disapprobation of such Pamphlet, and to prevent, as far as possible, its mischievous Effects, they ordered a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid on their own proper Account, to such Person who shall, by legal Evidence in a Court of Justice, discover the Author, Printer, or Publisher, of the said Pamphlet.

And the Proprietors of the said Act do hereby offer a further Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid.
