AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th Day of February 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Thirteenth of January last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Twenty Eighth Day of this Instant February: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Tenth Day of April next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Tenth Day of April next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Translation of a Letter from a French Officer at Osnabrug, dated March 3.

I was going to write to you from Bremen, when, on the 24th past in the Morning, we were informed that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick had stormed and taken Hoya, which was bravely defended by M. de Chabot, with the Regiment of Gardes Lorraines, two Companies of Grenadiers, some Piquets of the Regiment of Bretagne, and a Detachment of the Regiment of Mestre de Camp Dragoons. Finding himself surrounded on all Sides, and upon the Point of being forced, after a considerable Loss of Men, he retired into the Old Castle, where he capitulated, and obtained the Liberty to withdraw to the next French Post with all the Troops he had with him, except such as were intercepted and which have been made Prisoners of War. This happened on the 23d in the Evening, and followed the taking of Verden; which M. de St. Chamans found himself obliged to abandon on the 20th, and to retire towards Bremen, on account of the great Floods. It was then, on the 24th in the Morning, that we heard at Bremen of the Fate of Hoya; and M. de St. Germain judging that he could not be of any Use in this Post to Count Clermont, immediately resolved to abandon it, after he had sent Orders to all the Regiments, as well Foot as Horse and Dragoons, to repair, that same Evening, to Bassum. He left Bremen, and charged me with the Care of evacuating it, as soon as the Artillery and the Baggage of the Garrison should have been sent away; which I executed about Two of the Clock in the Afternoon. The Hospital and Magazines were left at Bremen for Want of Carriages and Time; and having no particular Charge of them, I happily rejoined M. de St. Germain in the Night at Bassum. We passed the Night under Arms, because we were not far from Hoya, and uninformed of the Designs of the Enemy. On the 25th we passed the Hunte, and quartered at Wildhufen, which Place we quitted on the 26th at Ten in the Morning, in order to proceed to Vecht.

We tarried the 27th at Vecht, and, upon Intelligence that a Colonel of Foot, whose Force we were ignorant of, had crossed the Hunte, we came and passed the Night of the 28th at Vorde, and arrived the Day before Yesterday at this Place, where we found the Regiment of Champagne, the Regiment of Colonel General Dragoons, and two Regiments of Horse. The Remains of the Gardes Lorraines, who are but 200 Men, for the broken Companies, which capitulated with M. de Chabot at Hoya, were gone with a like Number to Nienburg, joined us two Days ago by the Route of Quakenbrugge, and were sent Yesterday to escort our heavy Baggage to Munster, because there was not sufficient Forage here for their Subsistence. As there is a great Want of Discipline, and the Spirit of moroding is not easily rooted out, we had many Stragglers in our March, that either are already, or will be, made Prisoners. At Hoya were taken the Baggage of the Prince de Beauveau, Comte de Laval, and Duc de Coigny; and likewise those of M. de Lille-Boune and of the Regiment of Harcourt. M. de Lavalette has also lost some Things; and some Peasants Waggon, laden with the Effects of M. de St. Germain, fell into the Hands of the Hanoverians at Wildhufen. We are ignorant of what has passed at Nienbourg since Sunday; but by a Letter from Minden of the Day before Yesterday we learn, that it is resolved to defend that Place. We have no direct News of the Comte de Clermont; we have only just learnt by an Officer who quitted Hanover on the 26th, that the General was acquainted with the abandoning of Bremen, which he had much approved of. Our Corps here actually consists of 19 Battallions, 12 Squadrons of Dragoons, and as many Horse, without including the Corps under M. de Chabot. Yesterday we fixed upon a Position here to wait for and fight the Enemy if they arrive, unless we receive Orders to the contrary.

Hague, March 10. Letters arrived Yesterday from Francfort, of the 4th Instant, mention, That the French were transporting their Magazines from Cassel to Paderborn; and that there was a Talk of their forming a Camp of 20 or 30,000 Men near Ham. The same Letters say, That 6000 of the French Militia had passed by Mayence, and that the famous Partizan Meyer had beat up some of the Quarters of the Army of the Empire, particularly those of a Party of the Darmstadt Regiment, and 700 Men of Treves.

It is confidently believed here, that the French, who have left the Electorate of Hanover, will march towards Wesel, and that they have begun to throw several Bridges, both there and at Neuss and Duffeldorp, over the Rhine.

Hague, March 11. The Head Quarters of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick were, the 6th Instant, at Stadhagen, and he was supposed to have been the 7th at Frille, on the Side of Minden; which last Place has been invested since the 5th. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick having summoned the Town to surrender, the French Commandant, (who is of the Rank of Lieutenant General) returned for Answer, That as he had a good Store of all Necessaries, he should endeavour, by his Defence, to deserve the Esteem of a Prince equally distinguished by his Birth and his Bravery. Whereupon General Oberg, who has the Command of a considerable Corps on the other Side of the Weser, and of which the Hereditary Prince commands the Van Guard, has approached the Town, in order to begin the Siege, whilst General Sporcke has advanced towards it with another Corps on this Side the Weser. The same Morning, 7th Instant, the Bombardment of the Town was to begin.

On the 3d Instant, there happened an Action near Lauenau, between 600 Prussian Dragoons and Hussars, and 600 French Horse and 300 Foot, in which the latter were defeated; 300 of them were killed, and 176 taken Prisoners.

Prince Henry of Prussia is still in the Bishoprick of Hildesheim; and on the 5th had his Head Quarters at Liebenburg: It is said, he will soon join the Allied Army. Great Part of the Enemy's Artillery, we are informed, has been left at Hallerspringe, for Want of Horses to bring it along with them.

The French have evacuated all that Part of the Country about Wilshausen, at which Place it was said they proposed retiring towards Munster, in order to assemble in a Body at Wesel, and wait there for their Reinforcements. It was farther reported, that Part of the Allied Army had already entered the Country of Hesse, in order to drive the French out of it.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Lade, of Warbleron, in the County of Suffex, Esq; and his Heirs Male, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain.

Admiralty Office, March 13.

PURsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been sent to this Office, That the Williamson Brigantine of Hull, John Wildbore, Master, Burthen 160 Tons, laden with Wheat, Bale Goods, and other Merchandizes, bound from Hull to London, was, on the 10th Instant, about Two in the Afternoon, by the Badness of the Weather, and a violent Gale of Wind, drove on a Sand called the Dog's Head, where, by the Rapidity of the Tide and Violence of the Sea, she was in a short Time after billaged, and broke into many Pieces.
