AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th Day of February 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Thirteenth of January last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Twenty Eighth Day of this Instant February: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Tenth Day of April next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Tenth Day of April next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

F. Vernon.

Rome, Feb. 28. The Conferences which have been held between the Congregation of Cardinals appointed by the Pope, and the Venetian Ambassador, in order to reconcile the Disagreements with that Republick, are entirely broke off. An Apartment is preparing for M. Scaffgotofch, Bishop of Breslau, who is daily expected here from Germany. The Empress would not see him when he was at Vienna, nor permit any of her Ministers to take any Notice of him.

Florence, March 4. By the last Dispatches from Vienna, the Emperor has disposed of several Civil Employments, amongst which the Superintendency of all the Communities of Tuscany, (a Post of great Trust) is given to M. del Riccio, vacant by the Preferment of Senator Venturi, who is appointed one of the Members of the Regency. In Consequence of the Emperor's Orders for the March of a Body of about 3000 Men out of the Tuscan Troops into Germany, the first and second Columns, consisting each of two Companies of Grenadiers, and six of Fusiliers, marched from hence on the 28th past and 2d Instant. The third Division sets out this Morning, and each Corps was reviewed by Marshal Botta, the Day before their Departure. Their March is fixt through the States of Bologna, Modena, Mantua, and the Tirole, to Inspruch; and from thence by the Inn and the Danube to Lintz, where they are to be received by Commissaries appointed by the Empress Queen. Colonel Gondrecourt, Commander in Chief of those Troops, as well as Lieutenant Colonel Ferrar, and Major Breton, are to be promoted to higher Ranks. A Promotion of Captains, Lieutenants, and Ensigns, has already been made to compleat those Corps. An Indulto from the Empress Queen has been published here, by which she grants her Pardon to the Deserters, that, within the Terms therein prescribed, shall return to their respective Corps.

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

Venice, March 10. A few Days ago returned hither Signior Dohna, late Bailo from this Republick at Constantinople.

Hanover, March 21. On Saturday last was conducted hither a Body of 1100 French, Part of those who were made Prisoners of War at Minden, by a Detachment of Busche's Dragoons, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Lixfeld, and quartered in this City.

This Morning four Companies of Colonel Scheither's Regiment marched towards Hamelen to take Possession of that Place, which the French evacuated on the 18th Instant in good Order, after having destroyed all the warlike Stores.

Munden near Cassel is now the only Place in this Electorate remaining in the Possession of the French; but it is hoped that Prince Henry's Army will soon oblige them to leave that Place, as well as the whole Hessian Country.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.
WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.
