Hague, March 27. We had Advice Yesterday, by the Way of Francfort, that the French had evacuated Cassel on the 24th, after sending all their Sick, Artillery, and Baggage, to Hanau and Mentz. That they proposed forming a Camp at Lang-Gouss, near Giessen, and were conveying thither a Quantity of Forage, and particularly of Straw. And that upon their leaving Cassel a Prussian Party entered the City and took Post there.

By Letters from Cologne of the 24th Instant, the French Army is in a very miserable Condition, the Soldiers having neither Cloaths to their Backs, nor Shoes to their Feet. Sickness and Desertion reign amongst them, and have greatly encreased since their taking the Field.

Hague, March 28. Letters from Hanover of the 24th Instant, mention, that on the 18th an Austrian Detachment of 70 Men had entered Duderstadt, which the Prussians had quitted; but that on the Approach of another Prussian Detachment, they had retired from thence with great Precipitation in the Night of the 19th and 20th. That the Austrians had been pursued by 100 Prussian Hussars of Wunsch's Corps, who had made a Subaltern and 50 private Men Prisoners of War. That on the 20th the French had evacuated the Town of Munden, without committing the least Disorder. That a Courier had passed through Hanover, in his Way to Hamburg, with the News that the French had likewise evacuated Cassel, without doing much Damage. That they had left the Arsenal in pretty good Condition, and even some Provisions, which they had sold to the Inhabitants, for the Payment whereof they had carried Hostages along with them.

That on the 20th Prince Ferdinand had detached Major Estorff, of Breidenbach's Dragoons, with some Hundred Horse, to take Post at Ofnabrug, and seize upon some Magazines which the French had left there.

That the same Day, and the next, the Army had halted; and that nothing had passed, except bringing in several Prisoners of War.

That on the 22d the Army had resumed its March; and that his Highness had fixed his Head Quarters at Burgholtzhausen at some Distance from Ravensperg.

That on the 23d the Army continued its March to Verfmold, and on the 24th to Sassenberg, where it will rest the 25th.
