Kensington, April 26.

THIS Day His Majesty, and the Royal Family, came from St. James's to reside here for the Summer.

Whitehall, April 29.

An Express arrived here on Thursday the 25th Instant, in the Evening, with Advices from Holland, That Schweidnitz surrendered on the 16th Instant, one of the Works of the Place having been taken, the Night before, by Storm. The Garrison was forced to surrender itself Prisoners of War. It consisted in 250 Officers, and 3200 private Men. The Blockade has besides cost the Enemy 3500 Men, who have perished by Diseases.

And Yesterday a Messenger arrived from Major General Yorke, with a Confirmation of the aforesaid Account; and farther, That the Siege had cost the Prussians about 200 Men killed and wounded, and that they had found in the Place 80 Pieces of Austrian Cannon, exclusive of all the Prussian Artillery, which was taken there by the Austrians last Year. Immediately after the Surrender of the Place, the Prussian Army was put in Motion on all Sides.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall,

88vo. dmu. Whitehall, April 8, 1758.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Majesty, that there was found before the Hall Door of Godfrey Copley, Esq; at Sprotbrough in the County of York, on the 10th of September last, an Anonymous Letter without a Date, threatening not only Mischief, but even Murder, to some of the said Mr. Copley's Family, whose Names are therein mentioned: And whereas a second Anonymous Letter likewise without Date was found under the Rapper of the said Hall Door at Sprotbrough aforesaid, on the 20th of March last, threatening to cut the said Mr. Copley's Coach, and murder Lionel Copley, Esq; his Brother, and other Persons in the Family, whose Names are mentioned in the said Letter: And whereas there are strong Grounds to suspect such Letters to be the Contrivance of a Confederacy of evil disposed and wicked Persons, some of whom have received Favours from the said Mr. Copley: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Author or Authors of the said two threatening Letters, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in writing or carrying the said Letters, or either of them, (except the said Person or Persons who actually wrote or carried the said Letters, or either of them) who shall discover the Person or Persons who actually wrote or carried the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Godfrey Copley doth hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by him upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, in Lieu of Forty Guineas before advertised as a Reward for discovering the Person or Persons who wrote or carried the said first Anonymous threatening Letter.

G. Copley.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

WHEREAS the Copartnership between Thomas Hyam and Thomas Vickris Hyam, of London, Merchants, is agreed to be dissolved on the 28th Instant, and it is also agreed between them, that all Affairs relating thereto, shall be under the sole Management of the said Thomas Hyam; and particularly that all Goods now belonging and Debts owing to them in Partnership as well in Great Britain as in Foreign Parts, are and shall be the Property of him the said Thomas Hyam only: And all Persons unto whom the said Thomas Hyam and Thomas Vickris Hyam, as Copartners, are now indebted, are hereby desired to apply to Thomas Hyam only, for the Payment thereof.

King's Remembrancer's Office. Easter Term, in the 31st Year of the Reign of King George the Second. Wednesday the 26th of April 1758. Between James Walwyn, Esq; Plaintiff; and William Perkins and Ann his Wife, Defendants. Herefordshire. By Bill.

UPON the Motion of Mr. Comyn, of Council with the Plaintiff, and on Reading the Affidavit of Joseph Tanner, it is ordered by the Court, that the Defendants do appear to the said Plaintiff's Bill on or before the 1st Day of next Trinity Term. Price for Plaintiff. By Order of the Deputy Remembrancer.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery it is ordered (amongst other Directions thereby given) that Edmund Sawyer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, who succeeded James Lightboun, Esq; in his Office, do take an Account of what now remains due to the respective Creditors of Edward Hales, late of St. Stephen's near Canterbury, in the County of Kent, Esq; deceased, who have omitted to apply for and receive their respective Debts, mentioned in the said Mr. Lightboun's Report, dated the 7th of September 1734, and he is to compute Interest on such of the Debts of the said Edward Hales, mentioned in the said Master Lightboun's said Report, as carry Interest, to such of the Creditors who have already received their principal Sums, under the former Orders of the said Court. And it is further Ordered, that the said Master Sawyer do likewise take an Account of what is now remaining due for Interest, to such of the Creditors whose Debts carry Interest, and have not been claimed before the said Master, and been received under former Orders in the same Cause, to the 11th Day of July 1753. Now this second Notice is hereby given of the said Order, to the Intent that such Creditors of the said Edward Hales, or their Representatives, who have omitted to apply for and receive their respective Debts, may forthwith come before the said Master Sawyer, at his Chambers in Lincoln's Inn, and Claim the same. And that such of the Creditors, or their Representatives, whose Debts carry Interest, as well those who have already received their principal Sums, as those who have not, may also come in before the said Master, and claim what is remaining due in Respect of such Interest, according to the said Order, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Order.
