Kensington, April 26.

THIS Day His Majesty, and the Royal Family, came from St. James's to reside here for the Summer.

Whitehall, April 29.

An Express arrived here on Thursday the 25th Instant, in the Evening, with Advices from Holland, That Schweidnitz surrendered on the 16th Instant, one of the Works of the Place having been taken, the Night before, by Storm. The Garrison was forced to surrender itself Prisoners of War. It consisted in 250 Officers, and 3200 private Men. The Blockade has besides cost the Enemy 3500 Men, who have perished by Diseases.

And Yesterday a Messenger arrived from Major General Yorke, with a Confirmation of the aforesaid Account; and farther, That the Siege had cost the Prussians about 200 Men killed and wounded, and that they had found in the Place 80 Pieces of Austrian Cannon, exclusive of all the Prussian Artillery, which was taken there by the Austrians last Year. Immediately after the Surrender of the Place, the Prussian Army was put in Motion on all Sides.

Whitehall, April 29.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall,
