

Leghorn, May 22. On Saturday last arrived here a Tartane laden with Corn, taken by His Britannick Majesty's Ship Rainbow, near Toulon. The Enterprize Privateer has brought into this Port three Tartanes laden with Timber for Ship-building, from the Roman State, on Account of the French King.

Naples, May 16. His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Ambuscade sailed from hence on Friday upon a Cruize. By Letters from Malta, the Rose Frigate, with several French Merchant Ships richly laden, were still in that Port the 29th of April, but were soon to sail for Marfeilles.

Whitehall, June 10.

Late on Thursday Night, Lieutenant Distington, of the Tartar Cutter, arrived with Letters from his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, and the Honourable Captain Howe, dated in Cancell Bay the 6th Instant, giving an Account, that after the Fleet had been kept by contrary Winds, several Days, in Sight of the French Coast, Part of the Troops had been fortunate enough to make good their Landing on the 5th at Night, without any Thing that could be called Opposition. A small Battery or two opposed the Landing, which Mr. Howe soon silenced with his Ships, and the Resistance the Grenadiers found from the Peasants was too trifling to be mentioned. The first landing consisted of as many of the Foot Guards as could be disembarked, with Major General Dury; the Grenadiers of the Army with Major General Mottyn; the whole commanded by Lord George Sackville. The Troops behaved with the utmost Regularity, and the Remainder are disembarking as fast as possible.

Admiralty Office, June 10.

ON the 9th of March last, His Majesty's Ship the Nassau of 64 Guns, the Harwich of 50 Guns, Rye of 24 Guns, with the Swan Sloop, and two Busses, sailed from Plymouth for the Coast of Africa, under the Command of Captain Marsh, having on Board 200 Marines under Major Mafon, with a Detachment of Artillery People under Captain Walker. On the 24th of April this Squadron arrived off the River Senegal, and after sounding the Entrance, the small Vessels and Boats got over the Bar the 29th, there not being Water for any Thing larger than the Swan Sloop to go in. The Enemy with seven Vessels, three of which were armed with Ten Guns each, made a Show of attacking our Small Craft, and kept a kind of running Fire, but were soon repulsed, and obliged to retire up the River. The Marines and Seamen, to the Number of 700, landed, and got the Artillery on Shore; and next Day, (the 30th) when they were ready for proceeding to attack Fort Lewis, which is upon a small Island about twelve Miles up the River from the Bar, Deputies arrived from the superior Council of Senegal with Articles upon which they proposed to capitulate. Captain Marsh and Major Mafon made some Alterations therein. On the 1st of May they were agreed to, and were in Substance as follows.

I. The Forts, Storehouses, Vessels, Arms, Provisions, and every Thing belonging to the Company upon the River Senegal, to be put into the Possession of the English.

II. All the White People, belonging to the Senegal Company, to be conducted to France, with their private Effects; Merchandize and uncoined Treasure excepted.

III. The Free Mulattoes, or Negroes, to remain so; not to be molested in their Religion or Effects, and to have Liberty to retire, if they chuse it.

In Consequence of these Articles, Major Mafon, with the Marines, took Possession of Fort Lewis the 2d of May. In it were found 232 French Officers and Soldiers; 92 Pieces of Cannon; with Treasure, Slaves, and Merchandize, to a very considerable Value.
