AT the Court at Kensington, the 29th Day of June 1758,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Eighth of May last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, is near expiring; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Twelfth Day of August next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Twelfth Day of August next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

F. Vernon.

Dublin, June 23.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the Great Guns were fired at His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of

His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, June 29, 1758.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give Notice, that they are ready to receive Proposals from any Person or Persons willing to supply the following Sorts and Quantities of Provisions for Four Hundred Men, viz. For each Man by the Week, seven Pounds Weight of Biscuit or soft Bread, two Pound and Half of Beef, one Pound of Pork, four Pints of Pease, three Pints of Oatmeal, six Ounces of Butter, eight Ounces of Cheese, or four Ounces of Butter in Lieu thereof; (being the Allowance to the Garrison of Gibraltar) and likewise such Quantities of Rum, Brandy, or Vidonia Wine as shall be judged necessary; which Provisions and Liquors are to be delivered within three Calendar Months from the Date of the Contract, at the Fort or Forts lately taken from the French on the River Senegal in Africa, for the Use of His Majesty's Troops which shall be put into Garrison there. The Lords will also be ready to receive Proposals for remitting the Pay of the said Troops in Spanish Silver. Proper Security must be given for the Performance of the Contract; and the said Proposals are to be delivered, sealed up and directed to their Lordships Secretaries at the said Treasury Chambers, at any Time on or before the 12th Day of July next.

Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, it is enacted, That from and after the 5th Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and fifty eight, no Person whatsoever, unless he be authorized and enabled by having taken out such Licence as by the said Act is prescribed, shall sell or utter by any Retail Measure, or in Bottles, in any Quantity less than twenty five Gallons, any Kind of Liquor made in Great Britain, by Infusion, Fermentation, or otherwise, from Foreign Fruit, or Sugar, or from British Fruit, or Sugar; or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients commonly called Sweets, or made Wine; or any Kind of Liquor made in Great Britain, and known by the Name of Sweets or made Wines, of whatsoever Materials, or in whatsoever Manner the same may be made, upon Pain to forfeit for every such Offence One Hundred Pounds; Therefore Notice is hereby given to all Persons who sell Sweets, or made Wines, by Retail, forthwith to take out Licences at the said Office for the selling thereof, or they will be prosecuted for the said Penalty of One Hundred Pounds: And all Persons applying for such Licences who sell Ale and Spirituous Liquors, are required to bring their Ale and Spirituous Liquor Licences with them.

Excise Office, London, June 28, 1758.

WHEREAS by an Act made last Session of Parliament, the Duty of Six-pence per Ounce upon wrought Plate, granted by an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, intitled, 'An Act for laying a Duty upon wrought Plate, &c.' did, after the 1st Day of June 1758, cease and determine; and whereas by the said Act of last Session of Parliament it is enacted, that in lieu thereof there shall, from and after the 5th Day of July 1758, be paid a Duty of Forty Shillings for every Licence to be taken out by each Person trading in, selling or vending Gold or Silver Plate; and that no Person shall presume to trade in, vend or sell any Gold or Silver Plate, without first taking out a Licence for that Purpose, and paying down forty Shillings for the same, at the Chief Office of Excise in London, if such Licence be taken out within the Limits or Jurisdiction of the said Chief Office; but if it be taken out without the Limits aforesaid, that then such Duty shall be paid at the Office of Excise next adjoining to the Place where the Person taken it out shall reside and inhabit; and thereby every Person who shall take out such Licence, is required to take out a fresh Licence ten Days at least before the Expiration of twelve Calender Months after the taking out the first Licence, before he presumes to trade in, vend, or sell any Gold or Silver Plate; and in the same Manner to renew such Licence from Year to Year, paying down the like Sum of Forty Shillings for each new Licence at the Places and Times before mentioned, under the Penalty of forfeiting Twenty Pounds for each Offence. And it is further enacted, that all Persons using the Trade of selling or vending Gold or Silver Plate, or any Goods or Wares composed of Gold or Silver,

Silver, or any Goods, or Wares in which any Gold or Silver is or shall be manufactured; and also all Persons employed to sell any Gold or Silver Plate, or any such Goods or Wares aforesaid, at any Auction or publick Sale, or by Commission, shall respectively be deemed Traders in, Sellers or Venders of Gold and Silver Plate, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall take out a Licence for the same; provided that this Act shall not extend to subject Persons to any Penalty for or in respect of his, her, or their trading in, vending or selling, Gold or Silver Lace, or Gold or Silver Wire, Thread, or Fringe, without taking out such Licence as aforesaid.

The Commissioners of Excise do hereby give Notice, that on the 30th of this Instant June, and on every Day afterwards (Sundays and Holidays excepted) constant Attendance will be given at the Excise-Office in the Old Jewry, from Eight o'Clock in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon, for receiving such Duties, and granting such Licences; in Pursuance of the said Act, from and to all Persons who are required by the said Act to take out the said Licences, residing or inhabiting within the Bills of Mortality, or the Parish of St. Mary le Bonne, being the Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise. And also that on the 5th Day of July ensuing, the Date hereof, and every Day afterwards (Sundays excepted) constant Attendance will be given at the several Offices of Excise in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for receiving such Duties, and granting such Licences, from and to all Persons not residing or inhabiting within the said Limits of the said Chief Office.

And the Commissioners of Excise do hereby further give Notice, that Attendance will be given the 5th Day of July next, and for thirty Days afterwards, (Sundays and Holidays excepted) at the Excise-Office in the Old Jewry, from Eight o'Clock in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon, for receiving such fresh Notices, Entries and Duties, as are required by the Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, to be made and paid within thirty Days after the 5th Day of July next, for Silver Plate chargeable on Persons, and Bodies Politick or Corporate, owning, using, having or keeping the same, and inhabiting or being situate within the aforesaid Limits of the Chief Office of Excise; and that the like Attendance will also be given at the several Offices of Excise in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for receiving the like Notices, Entries, and Duties, from the several Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, not inhabiting or being situate within the said Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise, and who are required by the said last-mentioned Act to give, make, and pay the same.

And the said Commissioners do hereby remind all Persons, and Bodies Politick or Corporate, that the Time for making fresh Entries for such Plate, and paying the Duties for the subsequent Year, will commence on the 5th Day of July next, when, or within thirty Days after, all Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, are obliged, by the said last-mentioned Act, under the Penalties therein set forth, to make such fresh Entries, and pay such respective Duties chargeable by the said Act on the Silver Plate which they shall then respectively own, use, have, or keep; the said Duties NOT BEING REPEALED by the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Bendall Martyn, Secretary.
