Constantinople, June 3.

THE Ramazan, which is drawing towards a Conclusion, has passed with great Quiet; and the Want of Corn, and other Provisions, has been less felt than for some Months past. The several repeated Prohibitions of the Sultan, concerning Dress, has not been observed by the People; who conjectured, that all such Orders were not fixed for a Law, but that they might transgress them, at Will, by Degrees; however, the Grand Seigneur, frequenting the Town incog. met with a Jew, whom he ordered to be seized, and cut off immediately by his own People; and the next Day sent an Armenian to the Porte, who has since shared the same Fate. These Examples have occasioned great Consternation among the People, who now seem strictly to conform to those Orders which timely Warning and Lenity could not accomplish. The Bairam begins on the 7th Instant, the Ministers will then be occupied with ceremonial Visits for some Days as usual.

Turin, June 21. This being the Anniversary of the Birth-day of his Royal Highness the Duke of Chablais, who enters into the eighteenth Year of his Age, it has been observed at Court in the accustomed Manner.
