Constantinople, June 15. There is little News stirring here. The Grand Seignor has lately prohibited the Smoaking of Tobacco in the Streets, and diminished the Number of his Attendants in the Serraglio.

Hague, July 23. Letters arrived here Yesterday from Berlin, and from Upper Saxony, which bring Accounts of a Battle between the King of Prussia and the Austrians near Pardubitz in Bohemia, on the 12th Instant, in which his Prussian Majesty had been victorious. As these Advices do not come directly from the Prussian Army, we are impatiently waiting for a Confirmation of them.

The last Accounts from his Prussian Majesty's Army are dated from Leitomischel in Bohemia, of the 7th Instant, by which it appears, That the Attack that had been made upon the Prussian Convoy near Domstal, at a very bad Pass in the Mountains of Moravia; that the Head of the Convoy had arrived safe in his Camp; that the Center had been put in Confusion; that the Rear had retired to Troppau; and that the Prussians had lost between 7 and 800 Men, killed, wounded and Prisoners; that the Want of Ammunition had obliged the King of Prussia to raise the Siege of Olmutz, which he had effected with the Loss of three Mortars and one Piece of Cannon; and that he had marched into Bohemia, with his whole Army, without the Loss of a Man; that he had taken the Austrian Magazine at Leitomischel, and was marching to take that of Koningingratz, which was very considerable, and would enable him to pursue his Operations with Advantage. The Austrians had made two forced Marches to gain Pardubitz before the Prussians; and our last Letters from that Army were of the 10th Instant, which renders the Probability of an Action on the 12th much greater.

The Ruffians, who had made a Motion towards Frankfort upon the Oder, are retired towards Poland; so that at present the Apprehensions hensions of an Invasion into Brandenburg seems to be suspended; and Prince Henry of Prussia has taken his Measures so as to be able to march to the Relief of that Part of the Prussian Dominions in Case of Necessity.

Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick was still in his Camp of Bedburdyck on the 23d Instant, and was Master of all the Bridges upon the River Erfft. The French were at their old Camp of Frauweiler, where it was uncertain whether they could maintain themselves for Want of Subsistence.

I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

Two Cases communicated to Mr. John Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, by the Revd. Mr. Thomas Barton, of York in Pennsylvania.

I Have administered Dr. James's Fever Powder, which I had of you, with great Success; and was I not well assured that the Character of it is sufficiently established in England, I should send you above 50 Certificates, or even Depositions, from Persons who received the utmost Benefit by it. Two Cases are so particular, that I cannot omit giving you some Account of them. Henry Giles, a Man about 60 Years of Age, was troubled for a considerable Time with a violent Palpitation of the Heart, which was to be heard, and even seen, by any Person in Company with him: It was attended with Faintness, convulsive Symptoms, loss of Appetite, &c. and after he had tried many Medicines without Effect, he applied to me for some of the Powder: I desired him to lose about 16 Ounces of Blood, at two different Times, and then to take a whole Paper at once. He observed my Directions, and is quite well. The other was that of a Dutch Woman, who laboured under what we call a Dumb Ague for above two Years. She put herself under the Care of a German Physician, who gave her many good Medicines, without any Success: I advised him to try a Dose of Dr. James's Powder, which removed her Disorder in a few Days.
