Kensington, August 26.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on His Majesty: And being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, Sir William Moreton, Knt. the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the joyful Acclamations of Your faithful People, permit us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly to congratulate Your Majesty on the Success of Your Arms in the Conquest of the important Fortrefs of Louisbourg, the Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and Saint John, and the Blow there given to a considerable Part of the French Navy.

An Event so truly glorious to Your Majesty, so important to the Colonies, Trade and Navigation of Great Britain, and so fatal to the Commercial Views and Naval Power of France, affords a reasonable Prospect of the Recovery of all our Rights and Possessions in America so unjustly invaded, and in a great Measure answers the Hopes we formed, when we beheld the French Power weakened on the Coast of Africa, their Ships destroyed in their Ports at Home, and the Terror thereby spread over all their Coasts.

May these valuable Acquisitions, so gloriously obtained, ever continue a Part of the British Empire, as an effectual Check to the Perfidy and Ambition of a Nation, whose repeated Insults and Usurpations obliged Your Majesty to enter into this just and necessary War: And may these Instances of the Wisdom of Your Majesty's Councils, of the Conduct and Resolution of Your Commanders, and of the Intrepidity of your Fleets and Armies, convince the World of the innate Strength and Resources of Your Kingdoms, and dispose Your Majesty's Enemies to yield to a safe and honourable Peace.

In all Events, we shall most chearfully contribute, to the utmost of our Power, towards supporting Your Majesty in the vigorous Prosecution of Measures so nobly designed, and so wisely directed. And it shall be our most fervent Prayer, that Your Majesty may long, very long, enjoy the Fruits of Your auspicious Government, in Returns of Royalty and Affection from a grateful People; and that the Crown of these Realms may flourish, with equal Lustre, on the Heads of Your August Descendants, to latest Posterity.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Receive this dutiful and loyal Address as a fresh Mark of your constant Affection to Me, and My Government; and I return you My hearty Thanks for it. The steady Affections of My People, united in a hearty Zeal for the Honor of My Crown, will, I doubt not, enable Me to carry on, with Vigour and Success, a War which was necessarily undertaken, to defend the Religion, Liberties, and valuable Possessions of my Kingdoms, against the unjust Attempts of My Enemies. The City of London may always depend upon My Protection and Favor, and upon My constant Care for the Extent of their Trade and Navigation.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam terdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheefe: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the abovementioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

Mr. Charles Kirkby, Apothecary, in Barton upon Hamber, Lincolnshire, in his Letter to Mr. John Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, says,

THE uncommon Success I have met with in administering Dr. James's Powder in every Case he mentions, induces me to send for them directly from your Warehouse, in order to have them quite Genuine. My Reason for it is this, I have had a Sort that has not answered by far so well, and upon several Patients whose Disorders were alike, to those I had great Success in with the Powder from your House. I have tried the Powders in several other Disorders, and have found them equally good; I therefore desire for the good of my Fellow Creatures, that you will make use of this Letter as you think proper. Pray be so good as to send by the Lincoln Carrier two Dozen of them directed to me.
