Mr. Charles Kirkby, Apothecary, in Barton upon Hamber, Lincolnshire, in his Letter to Mr. John Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, says,

THE uncommon Success I have met with in administering Dr. James's Powder in every Case he mentions, induces me to send for them directly from your Warehouse, in order to have them quite Genuine. My Reason for it is this, I have had a Sort that has not answered by far so well, and upon several Patients whose Disorders were alike, to those I had great Success in with the Powder from your House. I have tried the Powders in several other Disorders, and have found them equally good; I therefore desire for the good of my Fellow Creatures, that you will make use of this Letter as you think proper. Pray be so good as to send by the Lincoln Carrier two Dozen of them directed to me.
