Whitehall, September 2.

THIS Morning a Messenger arrived at the Earl of Holderness's Office, with Letters from His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Hague, dated last Thursday Morning, giving an Account, That the same Morning early an Express was arrived there from the King of Prussia's Army on the Frontiers of Poland, with Authentick Advice, dated from the Field of Battle, that on the 25th past, at Nine o'Clock in the Morning, his Prussian Majesty had attacked the Russian Army, and, after an Engagement which lasted till the Evening, had entirely defeated them; that Fifteen Thousand Russians had been left on the Field of Battle; and that their Military Chest, all their Artillery, and three Lieutenant Generals, had been taken. The Prussians had lost about three Thousand, killed and wounded: And the only General Officer on their Side, who had had any Accident, was Major General Kahlen, who was slightly wounded. The King of Prussia had detached all his Cavalry in Pursuit of the Enemy.

A particular Relation of this important Event is hourly expected.

Kensington, September 2.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Exeter, having been transmitted by J. Elliott, Esq; Mayor of Exeter, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach Your Royal Throne, with our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on those signal and repeated Successes, with which it hath pleased Almighty God to distinguish the Justice of Your Majesty's Arms against the common Disturber of the Peace of Europe.

That most important Fortrefs and Harbour of Louisbourg, lately the Dread of our Colonies and Fisheries, is now become their Bulwark. No longer alarmed at threatened Invasions, we now spread the Terror of our Arms through those Coasts which had hitherto boasted of being beyond the Reach of Insults. The Reputation of the British Navy hath been retrieved and carried to the highest Pitch by the late Action in the Mediterranean; and the Reduction of the French Settlements on the River Senegal hath opened a new and advantageous Branch of Trade to your Majesty's Subjects.

Events, like these, will distinguish with Glory the Annals of Your Majesty's Reign, and be a lasting Monument of the Wisdom and Steadiness of the Counsels, by which they were concerted, and of the Conduct and Bravery of the Commanders intrusted with the Execution. From the continued Pursuit of the like prudent and vigorous Measures; from that remarkable Unanimity and uncommon Zeal with which the whole Nation is united in Support of the publick Interests; from the Ardour and Intrepidity, which animate Your Majesty's Fleets and Armies; and, above all, from an humble Confidence in the Divine Protection and Assistance, we cannot but form the most pleasing Expectations, that our haughty Enemy will, at length, be obliged to submit to the Terms of a safe and equitable Peace.

With this Prospect before us, may we be permitted to indulge our Hopes, that the most valuable of these Acquisitions will, for the Future, remain a Part of the British Dominions, as a reasonable Security against the Perfidy of that Nation, whose restless Ambition no Treaties have been hitherto found sufficient to restrain.

In the mean Time we beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we shall, with the utmost Cheerfulness, contribute every Assistance in our Power, in Support of Your Majesty and Your August Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and towards carrying on with Vigour that just and necessary War, in which Your Majesty has so generously engaged, in Vindication of the Religion, the Liberties, the Commerce, and the indisputable Rights of the British Nation.

Turin, August 16. The Right Honourable the Earl of Bristol, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the King of Spain, having taken his Audiences of Leave of the King of Sardinia, their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Dutchess of Savoy, and the rest of the Royal Family, set out from hence very early on Tuesday Morning for Genoa, where his Excellency will embark immediately on Board His Majesty's Ship the Monmouth, and sail with the first fair Wind to Alicant.

Whitehall

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatches, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his the said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies above-mentioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the above-mentioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

Belvoir Castle, August 28, 1758.

Whereas at a Meeting held at Leicester, in Pursuance of a former Advertisement, to receive the Names of such Gentlemen as were willing to accept of Commissions as Officers in the Militia of the County of Leicester, no Gentlemen did then offer themselves, nor have since that Time offered to accept of Commissions in the said Militia; Notice is hereby given by His Majesty's Lieutenant, that all further Proceeding for raising the Militia of the said County, will be suspended until the 25th Day of March 1759.

RUTLAND.

Reading, August 14, 1758.

Whereas the Duke of St. Albans, His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Berks, did, by Advertisement in the London Gazette, and other Weekly News Papers usually circulated in the said County, desire all Persons, qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia of the said County, and willing to accept of Commissions therein, to meet at the Town Hall at Reading, on this Day, in order that every Person so qualified, and willingly to accept any such Commission, might deliver his Name in Writing, or cause it to be delivered to His Majesty's said Lieutenant, or, in Case of his Absence, to such Person as should be authorized by such Lieutenant to receive the same, specifying also the Rank in which he was willing to serve. And whereas Lord Henry Beauclerk, in the Absence of the Duke of St. Albans, and authorized by him to receive the Names of Persons qualified and willing to accept of Commissions in the said Militia, did attend at the said Meeting this Day, and several Gentlemen did appear and deliver in their Names to serve as Officers in the said Militia; yet for the more effectual carrying into Execution the Acts of Parliament lately passed relating to the Militia, it is desired that such Persons, who are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the said Militia, and have not already delivered in their Names, will deliver, or cause their Names to be delivered in at another Meeting to be held for that Purpose, at the Town Hall in Reading, on Tuesday the 5th Day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon.

H. BEAUCLERK.

Landshipping, August 15, 1758.

Whereas a sufficient Number of Gentlemen have not this Day offered to serve as Officers in the Militia for the County of Pembroke, with the Town and County of the Town of Haverfordwest; Therefore His Majesty's Lieutenant for the same, hereby gives Notice, that there will be a further Meeting at the Angel Inn in Haverfordwest, on Tuesday the 12th Day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; when such Gentlemen, as are willing to accept of Commissions in the said Militia, are desired to deliver in their Names in Writing, to the said Lieutenant, or such Person as shall be by him authorized to receive the same, specifying also the Rank in which they are severally willing to serve. And the Deputy Lieutenants are also desired to meet at the same Time and Place, being the General Meeting.

W. OWEN.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company now or late belonging to His Majesty's Ship Squirrel, Hyde Parker, Esq; late Commander, who were actually on Board her at the taking the Tres Venerable, a French Privateer, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the said Privateer, on Board His Majesty's Ship Brilliant, Hyde Parker, Esq; Commander, on the said Ship's Arrival at Spithead; And that the Recalls will be made at the French Horn and Dolphin in Crutched Fryers, (after the first Payment on Board the said Brilliant) on the first Thursday in every Month for one Year, and on the first Thursday in every three Months for two Years after, between the Hours of Twelve and Two.
