AT the Court at Kensington, the 28th Day of July 1758,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Ninth of June last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of August next; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of September next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Thirtieth Day of September next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Kensington, September 1.

THIS Day the following Address of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, was presented to the King by Matthew Bell, Esq; Mayor, and Sir Walter Blackett, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ancafter, Lord of the Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address was most graciously received; and they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council, of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms, particularly in so important an Instance as that of taking Cape Breton, a Place of the greatest Consequence to the Commerce of these Kingdoms, and essential to the Security of your Majesty's Dominions in America.

May the Almighty continue to give Success to the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and still crown your Arms with Victory, in the Prosecution of this just and necessary War: May Cape Breton ever be preserved as a most valuable Jewel in the Imperial Crown of Great Britain: May that Crown be long worn on your Majesty's Sacred Head, to the Joy and Comfort of your People; then handed down in your Family to latest Posterity, for the Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties; in Support of which glorious Purposes, your Majesty may depend on our utmost Efforts on all Occasions.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of August, 1758.

Kensington, Sept. 4.

The two following Addresses were presented to the King by Sir Walter Blackett, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for Newcastle upon Tyne, and Matthew Bell, Esq; Mayor, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford: Which Addresses his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship, of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to present our sincere and fervent Congratulations, on the late glorious Success that has attended your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land.

The Regaining the important Island of Cape Breton, so essential a Protection to the Trade of the American Colonies, must fill our Hearts with Joy, and give the pleasing Prospect, that your Majesty's paternal and constant Care of the Commercial Interests of your People may be amply carried into Execution: The vigorous Measures also that have been pursued to annoy the Enemy on the Coast of France, must give a further Security to the Trade and Navigation of these Kingdoms.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty, make your Reign happy, and continue
