By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty Eighth Day of this Instant September; We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Twenty Eighth Day of September, to Tuesday the Fourteenth Day of November next: And We have given Order to Our Keeper of Our Great Seal of Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Fourteenth Day of November next, be held, and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burghes, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Fourteenth Day of November next. Given at Our Court at Kensington, the Fifteenth Day of September, 1758, in the Thirty Second Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of September, 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Eighth of July last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this Instant September; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Eighteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Eighteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of September, 1758.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th of March last, for Prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit, and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship, or lade any Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to Impower His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for Impowering His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition: And also to Impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, having been tranſmitted by the Mayor of the ſaid Burgh to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Address His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

OF all your Majeſty's dutiful and obedient Subjects, there are none to whom any Victory, gained over the Enemies of your Majeſty, and your People, can give greater Pleaſure, than to this ancient and loyal Corporation.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to approach your Royal Throne, with our ſincereſt Congratulations on the late Succeſs of your Majeſty's Forces, in the Reduction of the important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, and Iſle of Cape Breton. A Place of the greateſt Conſequence to the Trade of your Majeſty's Subjects, eſpecially the Fiſhery, that valuable Nurſery of brave Seamen, to man, on Occaſion, your Majeſty's Fleets.

Give us Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, to expect (to complete the Glories of your Majeſty's Reign, if they want Completion) that theſe invaluable Conqueſts will be ceded, by an equitable and honourable Peace, to your Majeſty, and be annexed for ever to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

As your Majeſty's Zeal and Attention are not confined, but extend themſelves to the Preſervation of the Civil and Religious Liberties of Europe in general, in Conjunction with your Allies, we cannot forbear expreſſing the Satisfaction we receive from the repeated Succeſſes of the King of Prussia, your Majeſty's great and faithful Ally, who, by his inimitable Proweſs and military Conduct, has extricated himſelf from Difficulties ſeemingly inſuperable, and given ſuch a remarkable and unexpected Turn towards humbling and keeping within proper Bounds the inſatiate Thirſt after Power and religious Rage of the ungrateful Houſe of Auſtria, and likewise the ambitious Views of the grand Diſturber of the Peace of Europe.

May a conſtant Series of Succeſs attend your Majeſty's paternal Cares for the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms: And may thoſe Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration, be ſecured and perpetuated to us and our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guild-hall, this Eighth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford: Which Address his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of King's Lynn, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Conqueſt of the important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, with the Reduction of the Iſlands of Cape Breton and St. John; and alſo on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Forces on the Coaſts of Africa and France.

Permit us, Sir, excited by Zeal for the Proreſtant Cauſe and Liberties of Europe, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on the ſignal Succeſs of your Majeſty's Ally the King of Prussia.

The Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Conduct and Bravery of your Commanders and Forces, give us the moſt ſanguine Hopes, that, under the Bleſſing of God, your Majeſty will be able to recover and ſecure the Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown, moſt unjuſtly invaded by your inveterate Enemy.

May a Series of Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Arms, and procure an honourable and laſting Peace to your Kingdoms; and may your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for the Welfare and Proſperity of your Subjects, be ever moſt gratefully acknowledged, by their conſtant Loyalty and Affection to your Sacred Perſon, and your Royal Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the ſaid Borough, the Eleventh Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Watſon, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Conqueſt of the ſtrong and important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, the Reduction of the French Settlements on the River Senegal, and the other ſignal Advantages obtained by your Majeſty's Arms over the grand Enemy of the Liberties of Europe.

We hope the future Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms will be ſuch, that the Enemy will never be able to wreſt from us theſe valuable Acquiſitions, ſo important to our Trade, and ſo glorious to your Majeſty; but that they will ever remain under the Britiſh Government, as Evidences of the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils, of the good Conduct and Bravery of your Generals and naval Officers, the Intrepidity of the inferior Sailors and Soldiers, and of the Bleſſing of Providence on the Juſtice of our Cauſe.

Give us Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the greateſt Alacrity, contribute, to the utmoſt of our Ability, to the Support of a War ſo neceſſary for the Protection of our Trade, and the Continuance of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and which, we hope, will be continued to our lateſt Poſterity, under a long long Line of Successors in your Majesty's Royal and illustrious House.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the common Seal of this Borough, the Eighth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-eight.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5. Yesterday there was a numerous Court at Friedensbourg, on Occasion of the Anniversary of the Queen of Denmark's Birth-day, which was celebrated with the usual Demonstrations of Joy. At the same Time M. Pignatelli, the new Envoy Extraordinary from Spain, who arrived here a few Days ago, had his first Audiences of their Danish Majesties.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his the said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies above-mentioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the above-mentioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Victualling Office, August 30, 1758.
