

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, having been tranſmitted by the Mayor of the ſaid Burgh to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Address His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

OF all your Majeſty's dutiful and obedient Subjects, there are none to whom any Victory, gained over the Enemies of your Majeſty, and your People, can give greater Pleaſure, than to this ancient and loyal Corporation.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to approach your Royal Throne, with our ſincereſt Congratulations on the late Succes of your Majeſty's Forces, in the Reduction of the important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, and Iſle of Cape Breton. A Place of the greateſt Conſequence to the Trade of your Majeſty's Subjects, eſpecially the Fiſhery, that valuable Nurſery of brave Seamen, to man, on Occaſion, your Majeſty's Fleets.

Give us Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, to expect (to complete the Glories of your Majeſty's Reign, if they want Completion) that theſe invaluable Conqueſts will be ceded, by an equitable and honourable Peace, to your Majeſty, and be annexed for ever to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

As your Majeſty's Zeal and Attention are not confined, but extend themſelves to the Preſervation of the Civil and Religious Liberties of Europe in general, in Conjunction with your Allies, we cannot forbear expreſſing the Satisfaction we receive from the repeated Succesſes of the King of Prussia, your Majeſty's great and faithful Ally, who, by his inimitable Proweſs and military Conduct, has extricated himſelf from Difficulties ſeemingly inſuperable, and given ſuch a remarkable and unexpected Turn towards humbling and keeping within proper Bounds the inſatiate Thirſt after Power and religious Rage of the ungrateful Houſe of Auſtria, and likewise the ambitious Views of the grand Diſturber of the Peace of Europe.

May a conſtant Series of Succes attend your Majeſty's paternal Cares for the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms: And may thoſe Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration, be ſecured and perpetuated to us and our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, this Eighth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford: Which Address his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and

Common Council, of King's Lynn, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Conqueſt of the important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, with the Reduction of the Iſlands of Cape Breton and St. John; and alſo on the Succes of your Majeſty's Forces on the Coaſts of Africa and France.

Permit us, Sir, excited by Zeal for the Proreſtant Cauſe and Liberties of Europe, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on the ſignal Succes of your Majeſty's Ally the King of Prussia.

The Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Majeſty's Councils, and the Conduct and Bravery of your Commanders and Forces, give us the moſt ſanguine Hopes, that, under the Bleſſing of God, your Majeſty will be able to recover and ſecure the Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown, moſt unjuſtly invaded by your inveterate Enemy.

May a Series of Succes attend your Majeſty's Arms, and procure an honourable and laſting Peace to your Kingdoms; and may your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for the Welfare and Proſperity of your Subjects, be ever moſt gratefully acknowledged, by their conſtant Loyalty and Affection to your Sacred Perſon, and your Royal Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the Eleventh Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Watſon, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Conqueſt of the ſtrong and important Fortreſs of Louiſbourg, the Reduction of the French Settlements on the River Senegal, and the other ſignal Advantages obtained by your Majeſty's Arms over the grand Enemy of the Liberties of Europe.

We hope the future Succes of your Majeſty's Arms will be ſuch, that the Enemy will never be able to wreſt from us theſe valuable Acquiſitions, ſo important to our Trade, and ſo glorious to your Majeſty; but that they will ever remain under the Britiſh Government, as Evidences of the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils, of the good Conduct and Bravery of your Generals and naval Officers, the Intrepidity of the inferior Sailors and Soldiers, and of the Bleſſing of Providence on the Juſtice of our Cauſe.

Give us Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the greateſt Alacrity, contribute, to the utmoſt of our Ability, to the Support of a War ſo neceſſary for the Protection of our Trade, and the Continuance of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and which, we hope, will be continued to our lateſt Poſterity, under a long
