

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 16, to Tuesday September 19, 1758.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of of September, 1758.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th of March last, for Prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit, and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship, or lade any Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to Impower His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for Impowering His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition: And also to Impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of York, having been transmitted by George Fox Lane, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the [Price Three-Pence.]

City of York, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of York, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon the late glorious Achievements of your Forces, in the Conquest of Cape Breton, and the taking and destroying so considerable a Part of the French Navy.

This noble Enterprize, so wisely concerted, and so bravely executed, must convince the World, notwithstanding our former Disappointments, that the antient British Spirit subsists in its full Force, and is still able to curb the Haughtiness of France.

The Importance of this Conquest to your Majesty and your People, for the Defence of our Trade, and the Protection of our American Colonies, induces every true Briton to wish, that the Glory of annexing so valuable a Territory for ever to the British Crown, may be reserved for your Majesty, to add to the Lustre of your auspicious Reign, and to complete your gracious Designs for the Welfare and Prosperity of your People.

The Zeal and Loyalty of your faithful Subjects will ever co-operate with your Majesty's Royal Endeavours for the procuring a safe and honourable Peace, by a vigorous Prosecution of the War. May the Divine Providence bless those Endeavours with constant Success, and perpetuate the Happiness of these Nations by a long Continuance of your Majesty's Sacred Life; and by a Succession of Heroes of your Illustrious House, to inherit your Royal Virtues, and to grace your Throne for many Generations.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, having been transmitted by John Chaplin, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled, amidst the universal Acclamations of your People, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Reduction of Louisbourg, a Fortress of the utmost Consequence to the Commerce and naval Strength of Great Britain, and of such Importance, that we hope