of September, 1758.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th of March last, for Prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit, and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship, or lade any Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave, or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to Impower His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for Impowering His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition: And also to Impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having been transmitted by Edward Lambert, Esq; Deputy Recorder of the said City, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Surrender of Louisbourg, and the signal Success of your Fleets in reducing the Naval Power of France.

The universal Joy that has appeared throughout the Kingdom on this glorious Occasion, sufficiently shews of how great Consequence to our Trade and Navigation, this Conquest is justly esteemed by all Degrees of People:

We are at a Loss which to admire most, the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils in concerting Measures which so visibly tend to promote the Welfare and Prosperity of our Country, or the unparalleled Bravery and Conduct of your Forces in carrying them into Execution.

In these Circumstances can we be too sanguin in our Expectations? May we not reasonably presume, that neither the secret Intrigues, nor open Force, of our perfidious Enemies, will so far prevail, as to deprive us of the great Advantages that must accrue to us from this important Acquisition.

It is with the utmost Pleasure and Gratitude we observe, that the due Attention which has been paid to the true Interest of Great Britain, has produced an Unanimity among your Majesty's faithful Subjects, scarce ever known in any former Time, and has made them answer the Exigencies of the present Juncture with an uncommon Cheerfulness. This happy Unanimity, we doubt not, will enable your Majesty, under the Divine Providence, to put an End to the unavoidable Calamities of War with an honourable and lasting Peace.

May the Almighty prolong your most Sacred Majesty's Reign; and may your Illustrious Descendants follow the Example your Royal Virtues have set before them, and transmit the Blessings we now enjoy to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, having been transmitted by the Provost of the City of Glasgow, to the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The most humble Address of the Magistrates and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magistrates and Common-Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled; beg Leave, with the greatest Humility, to congratulate the Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Conquest of the Island of Cape Breton and Fort of Louisbourg.

Your Majesty's wife and steady Measures for maintaining the Tranquility of Europe against its restless Disturbers and Invaders, for defending your just and undoubted Rights and Possessions in America, and for protecting the Commercial Interests of your Dominions, will render your Majesty's Reign glorious to the latest Ages, and; we hope, terminate in a solid, lasting, and honourable Peace.
