Kensington, September 26.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Ligonier, and the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Bath, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most humble Congratulations on the many great and important Successes, which have been lately obtained through the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and by the vigorous Execution of your Arms,

As

As Englishmen who love their Country, we cannot but feel the highest Satisfaction in seeing the Honour of the British Name so gloriously retrieved, and the Insolence of its Enemies so effectually and severely chastised.

With Heart felt Gratitude, we see ourselves, in the midst of a bloody and almost universal War, protected from the Horrors of it; our numerous Possessions are preserved and defended; and our Trade and Commerce supported and carried on as extensively as in Times of profound Peace: This great and happy Situation we owe to the Goodness and Protection of Almighty God, and to the great Wisdom of your Majesty.

And we trust with Confidence, that your Majesty will soon be enabled to give your Kingdoms the Blessings of a safe and honourable Peace.

May your Majesty long continue to reign with Glory over a happy, united and grateful People.

Given under our common Seal this 20th Day of September, 1758.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens, of the City of Dublin, has been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens, of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of your City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty to accept of their most sincere Congratulations upon the Success of your Arms against France, particularly in those signal Advantages gained over them in America; Advantages equally glorious to your Majesty in the attaining, as the Attainment is of Importance to your Subjects, and repressive of the Insolence of an ambitious, restless, and perfidious Enemy.

It is with the highest Pleasure and inward Satisfaction we can reflect that these Successes, great as they are confessed to be, are yet to be considered but as the Earnest of others still greater to be obtained; since the Causes to which, under God, they are only to be ascribed, are, your Majesty's distinguished Magnanimity, and your noble Intentions so truly directed to the Welfare of your People, animating their Love and Gratitude to unwearied Efforts, in the Support of your Measures, and at once inspiring Wisdom to your Councils, and Courage to your Commanders.

With these Sentiments our Expectations are well founded, as our Wishes are most ardent, that such will be the Event of this just and necessary War, in which your Majesty is engaged; that all Nations shall perceive, and Posterity be instructed, that the Prince who, like your Majefty, possesses the Hearts and intire Confidence of his People, and whose Royal Dispositions lead him to desire Conquest but for their Happiness and Security, will ever be by them enabled to conquer.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereto affixed, this Seventh Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Eight.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, having been transmitted by Henry Whitaker, Esq; their Town Clerk, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and to assure your Majesty, that we heartily join in the general Joy, which has been expressed on the Success of your Majesty's Arms at Cape Breton: A Conquest effected by the Influence of British Councils and Valour: Of the utmost Importance to the Trade of this Nation, and to the Security of your Majesty's Subjects in America.

We should be wanting in our Duty to your Majesty, if we did not, with unspeakable Joy, humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the Success of your Forces at Crevelt, and on the late signal Victory obtained by your Good and Great Ally the King of Prussia.

Permit us, most dread Sovereign, to assure you, that whatever Difficulties we may labour under, in supporting this just and necessary War, we will not entertain the remotest Wish for Peace, 'till those noble Purposes are obtained, for the Sake of which your Majesty unsheathed your Sword, and till your Majesty, in your Princely Wisdom, shall see the proper Time for prescribing the Terms of it.

That your Majesty's Councils and Arms may prevail to secure a solid and glorious Peace to Great Britain and to Europe in general: That your Majesty may pass your Days in Tranquility and Happiness, undisturbed by Contentions at Home, or War Abroad; and that the Sceptre of this Nation may continue in your August Family to the latest Posterity, are our most ardent Wishes.

In Testimony whereof, we, being assembled in Common-Council, have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, this Twentieth Day of September, in the Thirty Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Madrid,

Madrid, Aug. 30. The Corps of her late Catholick Majesty was brought here Yesterday Morning, and conveyed, with the usual Pomp, to the Royal Convent of the Visitation, in this Capital, where it is deposited in the Choir of the Church, till a proper Vault can be built to receive it, her Majesty having desired to be interred there. The Office for the Dead is rehearsed solemnly and pontifically in that Church for the first three Days, the Grandees attending in Ceremony.

Madrid, Sept. 4. His Excellency the Earl of Bristol, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Catholick King, arrived at Alicant on the 30th past.

Rome, Sept. 5. The Pope, on account of his Election, has fixed a Jubilee, which is to commence in this Capital the 15th Instant. The Inhabitants of Perugia, Viterbo, and other Places in the Ecclesiastical State, who, during the Sede Vacante, rose up in Arms against the Government, to preserve their Privileges, having petitioned the Pope for a Pardon, have obtained it; but as the Inhabitants of Todi, and Citta di Castello, have not made the same Submission, a Process is forming against them, in order to punish them. The Pope has ordered 2000 Crowns to be remitted to his former Episcopal Church of Padoua, Half of which to be employed in repairing that Cathedral, and the other to be distributed amongst the Poor. On the 31st past, a Review was made of the Pope's Soldiers, when those who were enlisted in the Sede Vacante were dismissed, and a Gratification of four Zeckeens was distributed to each of them.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheefe: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the above-mentioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurishes, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

IT having been humbly represented to the King, that a great Number of Persons of Distinction have been already cured of the Gout by the Antiarthritic Wine and Powder found out and discovered by Joseph Collett, Gentleman, and that it will be of great Use and Benefit to many more of His Majesty's Nobility, and other Subjects, in the above Complaint, His Majesty, in Consideration thereof, has been graciously pleased to grant His Royal Letter Patent to the said Joseph Collett, for the sole Use and Advantage of his Invention; dated at Westminster the 16th Day of August, 1758. This Medicine Attenuates and Purifies the Blood, opens Obstructions, and recovers all natural Evacuations, by which Means the Morbifick Matter is entirely eradicated, as has been experienced by a great Number of the Nobility and Persons of Distinction, as well as by others of inferior Rank. It is a fine Bitter, and operates in the most friendly Manner, almost as an Alterative, yet gives immediate Relief. It may be used at any Time, when the Fit is coming on or going off, or in old confirmed Gouts, where there is no regular Attacks, or by way of Prevention whenever the Patient finds himself more Costive than common. In any of the above Cases, whoever takes it (though but one Bottle) may be assured that it will be with the utmost Satisfaction. To be had only of the Patentee, at the Golden Ball in the Strand, opposite the New Exchange Buildings, Price One Guinea. Any Person of Fortune and Character afflicted with the Gout in the Stomach, who will lend for me, so that I may come to them while there is any reasonable Hopes of Life, I will engage to remove the Disorder in one Hour's Time, or forfeit Fifty Pounds.

Pursuant to an Order made by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Henley, Knt.
