Kensington, October 3.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council-men, and principal Inhabitants of the Burrough of Plymouth in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. William Viscount Barrington, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council-men, and principal Inhabitants of the Burrough of Plymouth in the County of Devon,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects intreat your Acceptance of our unfeigned Congratulation on the Success of your Arms.

The late valuable Acquisitions in America, (which we hope will never be severed from your British Dominions) and the Achievements of your Troops on the Coasts of France, are sufficient Proofs of the Justice of your Cause.

We assure your Majesty, that we will, with the greatest Alacrity, assist you in the Prosecution of this most just and necessary War, in which your Majesty is at present engaged; and in the Preservation of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, of which your Majesty has been always a most zealous Defender.

May the Almighty grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign; and may your Heirs and Successors, by imitating your Example, continue to us the Blessings we at present enjoy.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Sir Charles Howard, Knight of the Bath, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Forces in taking the Fortrefs of Louisbourg, and thereby reducing the Island of Cape Breton, with its Appendages, to your Majesty's Obedience: An Acquisition of the greatest Importance to the Commerce of these Kingdoms in general, and to the Protection and Security of your Majesty's Dominions in America in particular, and a further convincing Proof to your Enemies of the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Bravery of your Troops.

May your Majesty long continue to rule over a loyal and dutiful People: And may the latest Posterity, among the numerous Instances of your Majesty's paternal Care for your Subjects, with Gratitude remember, that it is to your Majesty they owe the Addition of Cape Breton to the Crown of these Realms.

Given under our Common Seal, the twenty third Day of September, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Town and County of Poole, having been transmitted by the Hon. Sir Richard Lyttelton, Knight of the Bath, and Joseph Gulston, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Town and County of Poole.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land.

The Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and St. John, so directly tending to the Security and Prosperity of your Majesty's American Colonies; the Acquisition of Senegal; and the Damages sustained by our Enemies on the Seas, and on their own Coasts, we consider as Events highly advantageous to the Trade and Navigation of your Majesty's Dominions.

With Joy we view the Conduct and Courage of your Majesty's Commanders, and the Bravery and Activity of your Majesty's Forces in America, on the Coast of France, and in Germany. And the late great Success of your Majesty's Heroick Ally, gives us a real and sensible Pleasure.

We humbly beg Leave to express our Confidence in your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection for your People, and in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, that the Strength added to these Nations by our late Advantages will be vigorously exerted in the Prosecution of that just and necessary War, in which your Majesty is engaged; and in such a Manner as, with the Assistance of the Divine Providence, to effectually curb the Insolence, and restrain the Encroachments of our perfidious Enemies; to perpetuate in the Possession of the British Crown every Thing essential to so valuable an End; and to secure the Religion and Laws, the Trade, and Liberties of these Kingdoms, and of the Colonies depending on them.

May it be the Glory of your Majesty's Reign to compleat this great Work! May your most Sacred Majesty long live to see the happy Effects of it! And may the important Blessings procured by your Majesty to these Kingdoms, be transmitted down to latest Posterity, through the safe Hands of your Majesty's Royal Descendants.
