Kensington, October 7.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Huntingdon the 3d Day of October, 1758.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, most humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our sincere Congratulations on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms at Louisbourg. We bless Providence for this happy Event; and we hope, that the Conquest of a Place of so much Importance to the Enemy, will be the Means of pursuing with Advantage the Just War in which your Majesty is engaged, and of procuring the greatest Glory and Reward of Victory, a Lasting and an Honourable Peace. We feel the warmest Gratitude for your Majesty's unwearied Application to promote the Honour and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and the highest Admiration of your constant Attention to preserve the Rights and Liberties of your Allies. We entirely rely on that Wisdom and Goodness which has so long preserved to us the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution. May that pure Spirit of Piety, Justice, and true Patriotism, which so powerfully operates in your Majesty's Breast, ever influence the Minds of your whole Council.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon, has been presented to his Majesty by Robert Jones, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to be permitted humbly to approach your Royal Person with our most joyful Congratulations on the various Successes of your Majesty's Arms in the four Quarters of the Globe. We have no Doubt but that our perfidious Enemies are by this Time convinced, that a brave and prosperous People, governed by a wise and magnanimous Prince, are not to be insulted, without making the Aggressors seriously repent of their ambitious Purposes; and to prevent the entire Ruin of their Commerce, and the Destructions of their Colonies, to wish for such a Peace as your Majesty shall think proper to grant them.

We beg Leave to add, that we can feel the Weight of no Burthen laid upon us, as we are satisfied that what we contribute is employed to encrease the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, and to establish the Credit and Welfare of your People upon a solid Foundation: And we shall think think we are purchasing Honour and Plenty to our Posterity, by doing out utmost to enable your Majesty not to put a Conclusion to a successful War, till it can be ended by an Honourable and Lasting Peace. Given under the Common Seal of the said Burrough, the 3d Day of October, 1758.

Turin, Sept. 13. On Sunday the 10th Instant the Court went into Mourning, for six Weeks, on Account of the Death of the Queen of Spain.

Warsaw, Sept. 13. The Russians have evacuated Stolpe and Buttow, and are retiring into Poland. They give out that their Army still amounts to 35,000 Men, but own that the Loss they sustained at the late Battle will make it impossible for them to act offensively for some Time. There is a considerable Body of Russian Troops assembled in the Palatinate of Kiow. They are, it is said, designed to reinforce General Fermor, but are at such a Distance, that the Campaign must be over before they can arrive.

Copenhagen, Sept. 19. About ten Days ago the Russian Squadron quitted the Station of Falstebø, and sailed towards the Coast of Pomerania; and the Swedes towards Carlscrone.

Extract of a Letter from Dresden, Sept. 20.

The King of Prussia has not only dislodged the Croats, and Pandours of Fischbach, as I acquainted you in my last, of the 17th Instant, but has likewise made 400 Prisoners; among whom are, one Lieutenant Colonel, and two Captains: All these Prisoners are already brought into this City. His Majesty has since been employed in cutting off the Convoys, and all Communication, with Lusatia, at least by the Way of Bautzen, for the Road of Zittau, by Loebau and Neustad, still remains open, as also that of Bohemia, in Part, by the Elbe. The King has his Head Quarters still at Schonfeldt, and Marshal Daun his at Stolpen. The Austrian Army is encamped in the Neighbourhood, in a very advantageous Post, which is not easy to be attacked, on account of the Eminencies, which they have planted with Artillery. In the mean Time, it does not appear that Marshal Daun can stay long there, as Convoys, in this Season, would become too difficult, and the Roads, from the Elbe to Stolpen, over the Heights, are naturally inconvenient, and are besides made impracticable by the Rains, which makes it, with Reason, apprehended, that there will be a Change there in a very little Time.

Nothing considerable has passed between the two Armies of Prince Henry, and the Prince of Deux Ponts; and they will probably regulate their Motions by those which the King and Marshal Daun shall make.

The King's Army, and that of Prince Henry, are supplied with Provisions from the Magazines of this City; for which Purpose there passes, every Day, through this Place, some Hundreds of Waggon.

Monday last his Majesty received, by a Courier from General Dolina, the News that the Russian Army, under the Command of General Fermor, had begun to make its Retreat from the New Marche of Brandenbourg, towards Poland: That the 1st Division had marched on the 15th, and the 2d and 3d were to follow the 16th and 17th. The Russians would have returned by Pomerania, but the Prussians have prevented them. The same Letters also say, that they have left behind them, in the City of Landsberg upon the Wartha, about 9000 Sick and Wounded, and 1000 Men in Health to take Care of them.

The Letters from Berlin, of the 17th Instant, mention, that the Swedish Troops, which had already advanced within about five German Miles of Berlin, having received Advice, that General Weedel was drawing near that City, with a Body of Troops detached from hence, had, thereupon, taken the Resolution to go back again; but their Retreat may possibly not be easily effected, the Garrison of Stettin having had Orders to march to meet them, and General Weedel to follow them with his Corps.

Hague, Sept. 26. Upon the Approach of General Oberg on one Side by the Way of Paderborn, and of Prince d'Ysenbourg by that of Eimbeck, the Prince of Soubize has been obliged to retire, with the utmost Precipitation, to Cassel, abandoning a great deal of Baggage. Those two Generals are now strong enough, and resolved to give him Battle, which he must either risk, or entirely evacuate the Landgraviate. In the mean while, the Saxons have been prevented from joining the Prince of Soubize; and the Armies upon the Lippe keep their former Position.

Head Quarters at Dulmen, September 24.

On the 19th Instant Lieutenant General Oberg sent a Detachment of four Squadrons of Dragoons, the Grenadiers of his seven Battalions, and Lukener's Corps, towards Warberg, where the Enemy had a Camp of five Battalions, eight Squadrons, and the Hussars of Nassau Saabruk, commanded by M. Dumenil, who, immediately upon their Approach, decamped, passed the Dymel, and marched about two Leagues beyond it; and the next Day, some of Lukener's Patrols having passed the Dymel, they retired to Cassel, and Lieutenant General Oberg's Detachment returned to Paderborn.

The Corps of Major General Zastrow, which marched from Warendorp on the 16th, went to Hameien to join Prince d'Ysenbourg; and two of the Battalions of Hessian Militia, which Prince d'Ysenbourg had with him, are marched to Lipstadt, to relieve two of the Battalions in Garrison there, who are to join Lieutenant General Oberg's Corps, which will then consist of ten Battalions and twelve Squadrons, including one Battalion and two Squadrons which have joined him lately; and it is then computed, that his Corps, with that of Prince d'Ysenbourg, will make together a Body of upwards of 15000 Men.

Yesterday arrived 1000 Hanoverian Recruits for His Majesty's Electoral Troops; and the Hessians expect about 1200 more in a few Days.
