Kensington, October 7.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry,
Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden at Huntingdon the 3d Day of October, 1758.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, most humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our sincere Congratulations on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms at Louisbourg. We bless Providence for this happy Event; and we hope, that the Conquest of a Place of so much Importance to the Enemy, will be the Means of pursuing with Advantage the Just War in which your Majesty is engaged, and of procuring the greatest Glory and Reward of Victory, a Lasting and an Honourable Peace. We feel the warmest Gratitude for your Majesty's unwearied Application to promote the Honour and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and the highest Admiration of your constant Attention to preserve the Rights and Liberties of your Allies. We entirely rely on that Wisdom and Goodness which has so long preserved to us the inestimable Blessings of our happy Constitution. May that pure Spirit of Piety, Justice, and true Patriotism, which so powerfully operates in your Majesty's Breast, ever influence the Minds of your whole Council.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon, has been presented to his Majesty by Robert Jones, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder,
and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon,
in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Burrough of Huntingdon, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to be permitted humbly to approach your Royal Person with our most joyful Congratulations on the various Successes of your Majesty's Arms in the four Quarters of the Globe. We have no Doubt but that our perfidious Enemies are by this Time convinced, that a brave and prosperous People, governed by a wise and magnanimous Prince, are not to be insulted, without making the Aggressors seriously repent of their ambitious Purposes; and to prevent the entire Ruin of their Commerce, and the Destructions of their Colonies, to wish for such a Peace as your Majesty shall think proper to grant them.

We beg Leave to add, that we can feel the Weight of no Burthen laid upon us, as we are satisfied that what we contribute is employed to encrease the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, and to establish the Credit and Welfare of your People upon a solid Foundation: And we shall think
