Kensington, October 10.

The following Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity House of Kingston upon Hull, having been transmitted by Sir George Montgomery Metham, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Kingston upon Hull, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity House of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

BEING truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Good of your Subjects, and the Preservation of these Kingdoms, we therefore beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, humbly to offer our sincere Congratulations upon the Successes of your Majesty's Forces both by Sea and Land, particularly in the Taking of the Island of Cape Breton; a Place of great Consequence to the Trade and Navigation of these Kingdoms, and very essential to the Security of your Majesty's American Dominions.

May Cape Breton be ever preserved as Part of your Majesty's Dominions: May the Almighty continue to give Success to your Majesty's Councils, and still crown your Arms with Victory: May your Majesty long live for the Preservation of these Kingdoms, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of your faithful Subjects; and may there never be wanting one of your August Family to sit upon the Throne of Great Britain, till Time shall be no more.

Given under our Common Seal the twentieth Day of September, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by one of their Representatives, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Northampton, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses gesses of the Town of Northampton, do humbly beg Leave to offer unto your Majesty our most hearty and sincere Congratulations on the great and important Successes which have been lately obtained, owing, under the Almighty, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the brave Exertion of your Fleets and Armies.

The Diminution of the Naval Power of our common Enemy in Europe, and the glorious Conquest of the Island of Cape Breton, with the Forts and Harbour of Louisbourg, in America, afford us the most pleasing Prospects of future Felicity.

We foresee that the Trade and Commerce which is carried on in different Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, and which bring home to this Nation Riches and Strength, must, in Consequence of these Advantages, increase and flourish; and, as Lovers of our Country, it is a great Satisfaction to find that the Reputation of the British Arms is so well retrieved and established, that we have no Reason to doubt but that in due Time, when the present War (which was necessarily undertaken by your Majesty to defend our Religion, Liberties, and indisputable Rights) shall be at an End, you will procure for us a solid, honourable, and lasting Peace.

We are firmly united in an hearty Zeal for the Honour of your Majesty's Crown; and beg Leave further to assure your Majesty, that we will, so united, contribute all the Assistance in our Power to support your Majesty and your Royal Progeny on the Throne of these Realms, and to defend your illustrious House against the unjust Attempts of any of its Enemies.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fourth Day of October, 1758.

An Account is also received from Captain Hartwell, of His Majesty's Ship Lizard, that on the 2d Instant, cruising off Brett, he came up with and engaged two French Frigates called L'Heroine and Duc D'Hanover, for more than an Hour, when L'Heroine, the largest, made all the Sail she could for the Rocks near the Opening of the Passage of Fontenoy; and then he wore down, and engaged the Duc d'Hanover, which Ship, in little more than half an Hour, struck: She mounted 14 Carriage and several Swivel Guns.

On the 24th past, Captain Gilchrist, of His Majesty's Ship Southampton, saw a Sail to Windward at Two in the Morning, to which he gave Chace, and came up with her at Noon, when after an obstinate Engagement till Three in the Afternoon, she struck, and proved to be the Caumartin Privateer from Dunkirk, commanded by Jean Baptist De Cock, new from the Stocks, mounted 16 Six Pounders, stuck full of Swivels and Musquetoons, Burthen 280 Tons, and had on Board 147 Men.

His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, Captain Graves, is arrived at Plymouth, who, on the 21st past, after a Chace of seven Hours, took, off the Isle of Bas, the Duc D'Harcourt Snow Privateer of Dunkirk, of 8 Guns and 61 Men.
