THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Randolph, President of Corpus Christi College, and Vice Chancellor of the University, together with the Rev. Dr. Gregory, Dean of Christ Church, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the great Success, with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless the Arms of your Majesty, and your Allies, in Defence of the just Rights of your Crown, against the Encroachments of an ambitious and perfidious Enemy.

May it please your Majesty to accept our particular Congratulations for the Victories obtained by your Majesty's brave Subjects and Allies. We cannot but rejoice to see the Enemy trapped in the Work of his own Hands, and the unjust Invasion of your Majesty's Territories returned on the treacherous Invaders.

To these we beg Leave to join our most hearty Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in France, Asia, Africa, and America; but more especially on the Acquisition of the most important Fortrefs of Louisbourg, which we hope will be the greatest Security to the Trade of this Nation, and the most effectual Check to the ambitious Views and injurious Encroachments of France.

It is our Duty, in the first Place, to return hearty Thanks to Almighty God, who hath blessed your Majesty's Arms with Victory, and delivered us, and our Allies, contrary to the sanguine Expectations of the Enemy, and beyond all human Appearance and Probability. In the next Place, our grateful Acknowledgments are due to your Majesty. To the Wisdom and Influence of your Majesty's Counsels, to the prudent Disposition of our Fleets, and to the Conduct and Courage of our Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors, we owe, under God, these signal Successes.

May it please your Majesty to accept our most sincere and hearty Thanks for the many and great Blessings, which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, by whose Care and Prudence we are enabled to pursue our Studies, and enjoy the Bounty of our Founders and Benefactors, in Security, free from the Miseries and Calamities of War.

To these our Congratulations, we beg Leave to add our most solemn Assurances of inviolable

Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; faithfully promising to bring up the Youth committed to our Care, in Principles of Virtue, Religion, and Loyalty to your Majesty; and praying to Almighty God to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us, to crown all your Attempts with Success, and enable your Majesty to put an End to a just and necessary War, by a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Given at our House of Convocation, this Tenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Anson: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of your Borough of Portsmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our most ardent Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the important Conquest of Louisbourg, the Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and Saint John, the Diminution of the French Navy, and on the other Advantages gained over your inveterate Enemies, in the Course of this auspicious Year.

That the Divine Providence may bless your Majesty's Councils and Arms, and those of your great and good Ally the King of Prussia, with a Train of Prosperities, till your and his Enemies are reduced to the Terms of a safe and honourable Peace; that your Majesty may live long, beloved by your People; and that your Crown may descend to your Illustrious Posterity, till Time shall be no more, are the most sincere and constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Portsmouth, Your Majesty's most dutiful,
October 10, and loyal Subjects and 1758. Servants.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, having been transmitted by Lieutenant General Huske, Governor of the said Island, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

YOUR Majesty's ancient and faithful Subjects, the States of your Island of Jersey, warm'd with the highest Zeal, and with Hearts full of the the trueſt Loyalty, moſt humbly beg Leave to expreſs their unfeigned Joy upon the late ſignal Succeſs of your Maſteſty's Arms, by gaining Poſſeſſion of the important Fortreſs and Harbour of Louiſbourg, with the Ships of War in it. A Succeſs highly tending to the Honour of your Maſteſty, and of your Government, and to the Diſgrace of your Enemies, who had in vain uſed their greateſt Efforts to prevent ſuch an Event; which cannot fail to produce the moſt happy Conſequences, as thereby their naval Power is ſenſibly affected, and a Proſpect open'd for putting a ſpeedy Stop to their Encroachments in America.

The Terror ſpread along the French Coaſt, by deſtroying the Shipping at St. Malo's, from which the Navigation of your Subjects of England was greatly annoyed, and this Iſland continually threatned; the demolishing the riſing and favourite Harbour of Cherbourg, with the Ships and Fortifications about it; are ſtriking Proofs of the Superiority of your Maſteſty's Arms.

We ſee, with peculiar Satisfaction, the Preparations of an Invaſion againſt this Iſland render'd for the preſent abortive, by the wiſe Meaſures of your Maſteſty's Government, carried into Execution by Perſons of diſtinguiſhed Zeal, with a prudent and ſteady Reſolution, who had taken uncommon Pains to make themſelves acquainted with the neighbouring Coaſt.

The Works of Fortification, which your Maſteſty hath lately been moſt graciously pleaſed to order to be carried on for the better Security and Defence of this your Iſland, are freſh and ſpeaking Marks of your Maſteſty's great Goodneſs towards us, of your paternal Care for our Preference, and claim our higheſt Thankfulneſs, and the ſtrongeſt Returns of Zeal and Loyalty.

May the Insolence and unwarrantable Devaſtations of your Maſteſty's Enemies againſt your Electoral Dominions ſoon be effectually check'd! May Succeſs continue to attend your Maſteſty's Arms in all Parts, for the eſtabliſhing the Happineſs and Tranquillity of your Reign, by the procuring to your People a ſafe, laſting, and honourable Peace!

Permit us to declare, that as our Attachment to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover will ever remain unalterable, ſo our moſt hearty and ſincere Wiſhes for it's Proſperity will never ceaſe.

We are,
 Your Maſteſty's
 Moſt deſiſul, and Ever Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, has been preſented to His Maſteſty by Hans Stanley, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Maſteſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Maſteſty,
 The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Maſteſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with our Fellow Subjects, to congratulate your Maſteſty on the late ſignal Advantages gained by your victorious Arms over the common Enemy and reſtleſs Diſturber of the Peace of Europe.

By theſe Advantages we are convinced that the Wiſdom and diſinterreſted Meaſures of your Councils will always inſpire a Confidence of Succeſs, and an Ardour for obtaining it in your Maſteſty's Fleets and Armies.

The Reduction of the Fortreſs of Louiſbourg in particular, with its Dependencies, is an Event of ſo great Importance to the Honour of our Country, and has given ſuch a fatal Stroke to the French in the two Reſources of their Power, Trade and Navigation, as afford a reaſonable Ground to hope that they will ſoon be reduced to the Neceſſity of ſupplicating for a Peace, which, when it ſhall be granted to them, we aſſure ourſelves, will be ſuch a one as ſhall be glorious for your Maſteſty, and ſatisfactory to all your People.

Our Prayers in the mean Time, to the only giver of all Victory, ſhall be fervent and conſtant for an Increate of Years to your Maſteſty's Life and Reign, and of Proſperity to your Kingdoms, and that it may pleaſe him to add a Perpetuity to the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and gracious Government.

Given under our common Seal, the Fifth Day of October, in the Thirty-second Year of your Maſteſty's Reign.

Whitehall, October 14.

By a Letter from Admiral Boſcawen to Mr. Secretary Pitt, dated Louiſbourg Harbour, the 13th of September laſt, the following Account of the Inhabitants on the Iſland of St. John has been received.

Point le Prince	————	700
N. E. River	————	2000
St. Peters	————	700
North Point	————	500
West and N ^o River	————	200

Lieutenant Colonel Lord Rollo writes to the Admiral, that moſt of the ſaid Inhabitants had brought in their Arms.

The Admiral's Letter further contains, that by the beſt Accounts he can get, the ſaid Iſland of St. John has been the only Supply for Quebec, of Corn and Beef ſince the War, except what has been brought from Europe, having at preſent above 10,000 horned Cattle, and many of the Inhabitants declare they grow each of them 1200 Buſhels of Corn annually; they have no other Market for it but Quebec: It has been an Aſylum of the French Inhabitants from Nova Scotia; and from this Iſland has been conſtantly carried on the inhuman Practice of killing the Engliſh Inhabitants of Nova Scotia, for the Sake of carrying their Scalps to the French, who pay them for the ſame: Several Scalps were found in the Governor's Quarters, when Lord Rollo took Poſſeſſion.

Petersbourg, Sept. 8. Marshal Apraxin died of an Apoplexy on Tueſday Morning laſt; and it is ſaid he will be buried with the Honours due to his Rank.

Leghorn, Sept. 25. On Saturday the 23d Inſtant, Rear Admiral Broderick arrived in this Port with his Britannick Maſteſty's Ships the Prince, Culloden, and Guernſey. As ſoon as theſe Ships have taken in their Water, and other Neceſſaries, they will directly proceed to Sea again.

Hambourg, Oct. 3. The Ruſſians have evacuated Landſberg, and are retreating towards Pruſſia. Count Dohna is ſtill in Purſuit of them.

The Swedes sustained a considerable Loss on the 28th past at Fehrbellin, where a Detachment of 1400 of their Men were attacked by a Body of Prussians, and totally defeated; the Loss of the Swedes is computed at 500 killed, wounded and Prisoners, besides two small Pieces of Cannon.

Hague, Oct. 3. Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal set out for Soefdyck this Morning.

By Letters from Drestien, the King of Prussia has made a Motion towards Bautzen, with a View to bring Marshal Daun to a Battle, or to force him to retire into Bohemia. In the mean while, the Swedes have been worsted in several Encounters, and have retired towards Mecklenbourg, owing to the Prince of Bevern's coming upon their Flank, from Stettin, with a Corps of of seven Battalions, 1200 Horse, and a Body of Light Troops, with which he leaves them no Rest.

General Oberg was within a German Mile of Cassel, at Ober-Vilmer, on the 27th past, after having been joined by the Prince of Yienbourg. The Prince of Soubize was encamped near the Town upon the Height of Kratzenberg.

Hague, Oct. 6. The Armies upon the Lippe are just where they were; and as General Oberg arrived a few Hours too late, to cut the Prince of Soubize off from Cassel, he could only take an advantageous Position near him. It is very certain however, that the French are sending their heavy Baggage and their Equipages towards Hanau; and it is generally believed, that they will endeavour soon to follow them, if they can do it without running too great a Risk.

Hague, Oct. 7. All the Letters by the Hambourg Post, which is just arrived, agree, That the Russians are certainly gone. They evacuated Landsberg on the 21st past, and, on the 26th, had passed Stargard. The Prussians had entered Landsberg soon after. The further Accounts, by the same Letters, are, That the Swedes have been surprized at Fehrbellin: That the French are still at Cassel, and General Oberg in Sight of them: That the King of Prussia is endeavouring to get round Marshal Daun's Right Flank, and to force him to a Battle if possible: And that Prince Henry has cut off the Prince of Deux Ponts from getting any Subsistence in Saxony. Marshal Contades has made a Detachment to endeavour to relieve the Prince of Soubize; and, at the same Time, appeared by his Dispositions to have some Design against the Left Flank of the Allied Army, where Prince Ferdinand is well prepared to receive him.
