Kensington, October 14.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Randolph, President of Corpus Christi College, and Vice Chancellor of the University, together with the Rev. Dr. Gregory, Dean of Christ Church, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Oxford, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the great Success, with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless the Arms of your Majesty, and your Allies, in Defence of the just Rights of your Crown, against the Encroachments of an ambitious and perfidious Enemy.

May it please your Majesty to accept our particular Congratulations for the Victories obtained by your Majesty's brave Subjects and Allies. We cannot but rejoice to see the Enemy trapped in the Work of his own Hands, and the unjust Invasion of your Majesty's Territories returned on the treacherous Invaders.

To these we beg Leave to join our most hearty Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in France, Asia, Africa, and America; but more especially on the Acquisition of the most important Fortrefs of Louisbourg, which we hope will be the greatest Security to the Trade of this Nation, and the most effectual Check to the ambitious Views and injurious Encroachments of France.

It is our Duty, in the first Place, to return hearty Thanks to Almighty God, who hath blessed your Majesty's Arms with Victory, and delivered us, and our Allies, contrary to the sanguine Expectations of the Enemy, and beyond all human Appearance and Probability. In the next Place, our grateful Acknowledgments are due to your Majesty. To the Wisdom and Influence of your Majesty's Counsels, to the prudent Disposition of our Fleets, and to the Conduct and Courage of our Officers, Soldiers, and Sailors, we owe, under God, these signal Successes.

May it please your Majesty to accept our most sincere and hearty Thanks for the many and great Blessings, which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, by whose Care and Prudence we are enabled to pursue our Studies, and enjoy the Bounty of our Founders and Benefactors, in Security, free from the Miseries and Calamities of War.

To these our Congratulations, we beg Leave to add our most solemn Assurances of inviolable

Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; faithfully promising to bring up the Youth committed to our Care, in Principles of Virtue, Religion, and Loyalty to your Majesty; and praying to Almighty God to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us, to crown all your Attempts with Success, and enable your Majesty to put an End to a just and necessary War, by a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Given at our House of Convocation, this Tenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Anson: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of the Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of your Borough of Portsmouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our most ardent Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the important Conquest of Louisbourg, the Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and Saint John, the Diminution of the French Navy, and on the other Advantages gained over your inveterate Enemies, in the Course of this auspicious Year.

That the Divine Providence may bless your Majesty's Councils and Arms, and those of your great and good Ally the King of Prussia, with a Train of Prosperities, till your and his Enemies are reduced to the Terms of a safe and honourable Peace; that your Majesty may live long, beloved by your People; and that your Crown may descend to your Illustrious Posterity, till Time shall be no more, are the most sincere and constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Portsmouth, Your Majesty's most dutiful,
October 10, and loyal Subjects and 1758. Servants.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, having been transmitted by Lieutenant General Huske, Governor of the said Island, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

YOUR Majesty's ancient and faithful Subjects, the States of your Island of Jersey, warm'd with the highest Zeal, and with Hearts full of the
