The following Address of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset, having been transmitted by the Right Hon. the Earl of Coventry, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs, and Capital Burgeses, of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMidst the general Joy for the Success of your Majesty's Arms, your Majesty will permit us to testify our own on that happy Occasion: The Reduction of Louisbourg, and the Islands of Cape Breton and Saint John's, so distressful to the unjust Designs, and so mortifying to the boundless Ambition of the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, and so greatly advantageous to the Trade of this Kingdom, and to that in particular of this ancient and loyal Borough, inspires us with the warmest Affection and Gratitude to your Sacred Majesty for so beneficial and important an Acquisition. And may the like Wisdom and Resolution, which has so happily directed and animated your Majesty's Councils in obtaining it, be ever effectually exerted, upon all future Occasions, for its Preservation.

Your Majesty will also give us Leave most sincerely to congratulate you on the signal Victories of your Majesty's Forces under the Command of Prince Ferdinand, and those of your faithful and great Ally the King of Prussia; and may this most astonishing Example convince the present and future Enemies of Liberty, and the Protestant Religion, that the Almighty does make use of human Means for the Protection of those great, those invaluable Blessings.

That your Reign may be long, happy, and glorious, over a loyal and affectionate People; and that your Majesty's paternal Love and Care for all your Subjects may be uninterruptedly continued down, by your Royal Descendants, to their latest Posterity, is the most ardent Wish, and fervent Prayer, of your Majesty's most dutiful, and most loyal Subjects.

Given under our common Seal, the 2d Day of October, 1758.
