

General Post Office, May 5, 1758.

Whereas divers Persons, through Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into this Office, as also into the Post Offices both in Town and Country; that are directed on Board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying, at the same Time, the legal Postage for the same; and whereas Letters and Packets, are frequently put into the said Offices, which contain Money, Rings, or other Things of the like Nature; This is to give Notice, that no Letter or Packet whatsoever, under the above Circumstances, can, for the Time to come, be forwarded from hence, or from any other Post Office in the Kingdom.

N. B. Letters to Holland and Flanders are forwarded without any Foreign Postage demanded here, but if they are sent from the Country the Inland Postage must be paid to London.

By Order of His Majesty's Postmaster General.
Geo. Shelvocke.

Victualling Office, October 16, 1758.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 15th of November next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake to deliver a Quantity of Irish Pork into His Majesty's Stores at Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Gibraltar. The Conditions of the Contracts may be seen by applying to His Majesty's Post Master General at Dublin, or the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Cork, or at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London, Custom-House, London, October 20, 1758.

The Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he will be ready, on the 30th Day of October Instant, and the four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that shall then be due and payable, without Interest.

The said Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Case any of the said Debentures shall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above-mentioned, that no Interest will be paid thereon.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
June 17, 1758.

To the Agents of all Prizes taken by His Majesty's Ships of War.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the 29th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better securing the Payment of Shares of Prizes, taken from the Enemy, to the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, all Persons appointed Agents for the Sale of Prizes taken by His Majesty's Ships, are required, under Penalty of 100 l. to deliver unto the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, or his Deputy, in three Months after the first Payment or Distribution to the Captors of any Prizes or Prizes, an Account, under their Hands, of the Produce of such Prize or Prizes, by them distributed, together with an Account of the several Shares as shall have been by them respectively paid to the Captors. And whereas the same has not been regularly complied with, Notice is hereby given to such Agents who have neglected the same, forthwith to deliver in the said Accounts as above directed; and it is expected that all Persons who are now, or may hereafter be appointed Agents to Prizes, do, from Time to Time, strictly conform to what is enjoined in the said Act of Parliament, or they will incur the Penalties thereby directed.
