AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of September, 1758,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Eighth of July last, For paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the Thirtieth Day of this Instant September; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards, thereby given, should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the Eighteenth Day of November next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewise, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said Eighteenth Day of November next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Kensington, October 28.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, having been transmitted by Henry Butler, Esq; Mayor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Recorder of the said Town, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the signal Success with which it hath pleased the Almighty to favour your Arms and Councils.

We reflect, with inexpressible Satisfaction, on the Joy which must fill your Royal Breast, while you behold the gloomy Apprehensions of your Subjects so soon dissipated; your Dominions in Germany freed from the Ravages of an insolent Enemy; the Laurels gained by your Forces under Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick; and your Great Ally and Relation triumphing over the boasted and savage Strength of Russia; a Foundation laid for extending the Commerce of your Subjects both in Africa and America; and an inestimable Jewel added to your Crown by the taking of Cape Breton.

The Zeal and steady Resolution with which your Majesty's Orders have been executed at Saint Malo and Cherburg, by the Successor of our late most worthy Representative, afford us great Consolation, while we are lamenting the Loss of a Life so valuable and so universally regretted.

The many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, and the long and happy Experience we have had of your paternal Care and Goodness, inspire us with the most ardent Wishes and earnest Prayers for the Continuance of your invaluable Life; and that your Great Name, and that of the King of Prussia, may descend to Posterity, not only as the joint Patrons and Asserters of the Rights of Mankind, both Civil and Religious, but as the glorious Instruments, appointed by Divine Providence, to detect and defeat the most secret and most formidable Confederacy that ever threatened the Liberties of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Town of Nottingham, the Eighteenth Day of October, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Eight.

The

The following Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Town of Taunton, beg Leave to join with our Fellow Subjects, in presenting to your Majesty our joyful Congratulations on the Success with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless your Majesty's Arms, for vindicating the Rights of your Kingdoms, and reducing to Reason the Disturbers of Europe.

The Pleasure we receive from the Reduction of Cape Breton, and the important Fortres of Louisbourg, and from the taking and destroying so many of the Enemies Ships of War, is heightened by their being effected with so small a Loss, and in a Manner which does Honour to the Conduct and Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, and by our Hopes that they will open the Way to such further Conquests, as may soon produce a Peace, honourable to your Majesty, and by which the Rights of your Kingdoms, the Protestant Interest, and the Liberties of Europe, will be effectually secured.

May the Divine Providence add this to the Glories and Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, and may you long rule over a loyal, united and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th Day of October, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Corporation of Totnes, having been transmitted by B. Trist, Esq; their Recorder, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Corporation of Totnes, in Chamber assembled, humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude for your paternal Care of all your Subjects, to congratulate your Majesty on the repeated Victories, obtained by your Majesty's Arms.

If Success is the Proof of the Favour of Providence, how happy is this Nation, in being so clearly convinced, that your Majesty's Wisdom and Councils are blessed by the great Disposer of War and Peace.

The antient Enemies of the British Name, have seen, in the Compass of one Year, their darling Schemes of Universal Monarchy disappointed, their boasted Forces dispirited, and defeated, in every Quarter of the World, and themselves, who arrogated to be the Arbiters of Europe, terrified even on their own Coasts; and from hence we hope will have cause to learn, that this Free People, guided and governed by a King, whom they Love and Honour, will never suffer their Rights to be invaded, either by Force or Treachery, without exerting their whole Power in their Defence or Recovery.

America will be a lasting Witness of this Truth; and we, your Majesty's happy People, depend upon your Royal Wisdom, to guide the Success of War to it's proper End,—an honourable and lasting Peace.

That Heaven may still grant it's Protection to your Majesty, and bless us with a long Continuance of your Reign over us, and that your Royal Descendants may, following the great Example set by your Majesty, to the latest Ages, reign glorious Princes in the Hearts of a Free and Faithful People, is our ardent Prayer.

Given under the Seal of the Corporation, the Twentieth Day of October, 1758.

Admiralty

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the above-mentioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758:

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.
